Surgery Performed

Mr. Fred Oberle underwent surgery on his knee recently for an arthritis ailment. At this writing he has been relieved, of some of the pain and stiffness, of his knee joint.

Mrs. Robert Walker received word of the serious illness of her mother at Lynch last Monday. She has been ill for a long time with a cancer and turned for the worse, Sunday. The former has her leg in a cast and unable to make the trip at this time, however her two sisters at Lynch are caring for her mother and keeping Mrs. Walker closely informed of her mother's condition.

Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Doran and son of Hardy, Nebr. spent Thursday evening and Friday at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Scattergood and helped celebrate the 3rd birthday on Friday, Jan. 28th, of Lynn Sorensen, former's nephew, grandson of the latter, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Sorensen of Ruskin, Nebr. ents of the honored guest, were also present. They are Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Sorensen of Ruskin, Nebr. The two latter families joined the group on Friday, at the Scattergood home.

Mr. and Mrs. Orris Lanning and sons helped the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lanning at Palmyra, Nebr. observe the latter's 54th wedding anniversary last Sunday, at the latter's home.

Donald Anderson officer and pilot of the United States Navy, who recently returned from overseas duty in Italy, his wife and two sisters of Lincoln, visited at the H. N. Erskine, Jr. home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwezman have been suffering with the flu. A doctor was called Wednesday, as Mrs. Schwezman was not overcoming the illness, as hoped.

Mr. and Mrs. Page are the grandparents of a baby girl, Susan Beth, born to their daughter Ferne, and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Starr, at Lincoln. The latter is a former Eagle graduate. The American Legion Auxiliary had a food sale Saturday afternoon at the firehouse building.

Last Wednesday evening several Eagle folks attended the extension service dinner at Weeping Water, including the following: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frohlich, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Lanning, Mr. and Mrs. Orris Lanning, and Mrs. Laura West.

Birthday Party

On last Saturday evening several of the relatives of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Erskine, Jr., including his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Erskine, Sr., a brother, Orest Erskine and family, of Prairie Home, Nebr.; four sisters and families; Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Siekman of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Donald George of Prairie Home, Nebr. and the latter's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Owen of Florida and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Westlake and family of Eagle helped celebrate the birthday of Mrs. H. N. Erskine, Jr. at the latter's home near Eagle.

Robert Carr has been at the hospital for some time after receiving injuries from a fall down a stairway of his apartment.

A study group of the Women's Society of Christian Service met at Mrs. Charles Scattergood's home last Monday. The next meeting will be at Mrs. M. D. Fischer's home, Monday, Dec. 31st, at 1:30 P. M.

The Lion's Club dinner was served by the selected committee of the Women's Society of Christian Service Thursday evening at the Methodist Church. Dallas Fifee of Lincoln, formerly of Eagle, was one of the prisoner guards who was ordered to the vegetable locker a short time ago by some of the convicts. Paul Hulfish formerly of Elmwood, Nebr. was the guard who shot at the car from the front gate. Neither was injured. The former is the son of Mrs. Anna Fifer of Eagle.

Mrs. Herbert Oberle left for Chicago by bus to attend the national officers of the Women's Missionary League of the Immanuel Lutheran churches of which the former is President.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dysart of Iowa, formerly of Eagle, visited at the Fred Rudolph home at Malcom last weekend. They were former neighbors before the former purchased a farm in Iowa and the latter a farm at Malcom. The Dysarts also visited a brother, Porter Dysart at Tecumseh.

Double Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stoll entertained several couples at their home Wednesday evening including Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rudolph of Malcom, formerly of Eagle, the latter's daughter and family, the Otto Hinrichs of Pleasant Dale.

The Ralph Ransfords, Chas. Scattergoods, Orin Lannings and John Fischers of Eagle also were present as were Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Philpot of Weeping Water. The latter is a sister of Mr. Stoll.

The occasion honored the birthdays of Mesdames Rudolph and Stoll both on the same date, Jan. 26th. They were neighbors before the Rudolphs moved to their present farm, one mile east of Malcom.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scattergood entertained in honor of Lt. and Mrs. Max Buettgenbach at the former's home last Thursday evening by inviting the neighbors of both the guests and hosts Lt. Buettgenbach returned from overseas duty in Guam, recently.

The Rudolph Umland family of Lincoln visited at the Henry Rockenbach home Sunday.

Pvt. Joe E. Ayers will return to his home, at El Paso, Tex. after a 14-day leave and will be assigned for special schooling for several weeks.

Lt. Max Buettgenbach and family formerly of Eagle, who farmed Mrs. Laura West's farm a few years ago, before he was called back to service, has been visiting Mrs. Buettgenbach's relatives, also friends at Eagle, left for Spokane, Wash., Monday, to resume his duties as a Air force pilot.

MUTE GIRL MAKES FRIENDS

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Delores Schneider, an eight-year-old deaf mute, solved the problem of making friends and playing with other children, when her family moved into a new neighborhood — by teaching the children the sign language. There's hardly a child of her age in the neighborhood who can't hold his own in two-handed conversation.

The Good Luck Club met at the home of Mrs. Harry Stock on Wednesday afternoon, January 19th with a good attendance. The lesson on broiling was very ably given.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Stock were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gaebel, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gaebel and family. The occasion was to celebrate Mrs. Lee Gaebel's birthday.

Friendly Neighbor club ladies met with Mrs. William Blum on Wednesday, January 19th. All members but one were present. Meeting opened at 1:30 with regular business after which the entertainment committee, Pauline Kupke and Selma Lau placed two lovely cakes on a table before the ladies and Mrs. Elsie Wendt proceeded to show us some very artistic cake decorating. When this was completed the cakes were cut and served with delicious ice cream and coffee. Next meeting to be with Mrs. Carl Richert on February 16th.

A card party will be held at the R. N. A. hall on Monday evening, February 7th at 7:30 p. m. Public invited.

Four Square Meets

The Four Square Extension club met at the home of Mrs. O. B. Leonardus, Thursday, January 27th, 1955 with Mrs. Leonardus presiding. Since the lesson for the month was "Broiler Meals," our leaders, Mrs. Elsemann and Mrs. August Wendt prepared a one o'clock luncheon, consisting of a menu taken from the bulletin. The food was not only prepared in an appealing manner but was served attractively. The luncheon being over, the regular order of business for the month was taken over. The roll call of 18 members for 1955 made out for the new year. The year books were presented and checked for the changes. The executive committee gave their assignments to officers and committees for the ensuing year.

After reports and unfinished business, a collection for the nollo fund was taken. The meeting was adjourned to meet with Mrs. Wm. Rikil, February 24th. All departed thanking the hostess and leaders for a most pleasant afternoon. Reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Miller had as their dinner guests Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hall. They spent the evening visiting and watching TV.

Mrs. Earl Horton and her sister, Mrs. Power of Nehawka, spent from Thursday to Sunday at Steele, a city in southeastern Missouri, in the home of their brother, C. E. Fowler. They traveled by train. He is a worker in a radio division there.

Mr. and Mrs. Capen of Lincoln attended the funeral services of Mrs. Lottie Beck on Tuesday.

There were three funerals on that day. In the forenoon services were held at the Catholic church for Charles G. Shreiter of the Avoca community. He regularly attended church here. He is survived by his wife, Jennie and a daughter, Ross, at home; a son, Leonard of Dunbar; a brother, Edward, of Grant, and a sister, Mrs. Landgraf of Dunbar. Interment was in Nebraska City.

Otto Fleischman's new house in Elmwood has been completed. His house is heated with an air-flow perimeter system.

In his kitchen he has wall-to-wall stain cabinets. His sons, Walter, Eldon and Clarence, with the aid of his sons-in-law, had a big share in rapidly completing the job. Elmwood is pleased to have this fine new home.

Landscaping is fixed so that a lawn will show up when the winter is over. A group of church men are putting acoustic tile up for the ceiling of the basement at the Methodist church. A few ladies serve them their dinners each day.

The new residence of the Alvin Lashley family is rapidly going up in south part of town. Mrs. Emmett Cook was kept at home for two weeks with a cold and complications. Then her mother, over 90, in Greenwood became ill, so now she and Mr. Cook are there a good part of the time.
