Weeping Water P-T.A. Puts On Top Carnival for Funds

WEeping WATER (Special)
A crowd of about 250 attended the carnival sponsored by the Parent Teachers association held last Thursday night at the school house.

The evening began with a very short business meeting presided over by the president Mrs. Ralph Raines.

Mrs. Harold Elliot and Mrs. Henry Knaup were in charge of the check rooms.

Miss Kathryn Ellis, Mrs. Mary Nannen, Mrs. John Bender, and Mrs. Virgie Rhodes were in charge of concession ticket sales.

The register book was in charge Mrs. Minnie Bickford.

One of the greatest attractions for the grown-ups was the cake-walk, in which 12 persons participated each time. Fourteen cakes were given away. Mrs. Truman Lytle, Mrs. Francis Thoren and Mrs. Francis Detmer were instructors.

The Barker, dressed in black pin-striped pants, black long-tailed coat, can, and straw hat did his job well in drawing people's attention to certain booths.

Louise Noble and Lloyd Lane, played the parts of clowns. These clowns sold balloons to the many youngsters.

In another booth were three raving beauties selling kisses. They were Miss Cass County, Susan Stone; Weeping Water Football Queen, Barbara Christensen, and Norma Ward. After being kissed by these lovelies, the customer gazed eyed accepted a sack of candy kisses. All the proceeds from this booth went to the March of Dimes.

What is the future for you? Many found out as they visited the gypsy fortune teller, who read the future from her cards. She was portrayed by Mrs. Lloyd Lane, who was dressed in a dark purple dress and wore much jewelry and dangling jewelry.

Other concessions located all over in the gym were: The fish pond, run by Mrs. Henry Frisel, Mrs. Louise Noble, and Mrs. Alvin Grosser; The white elephant table with Miss Maude Bald-

Weeping Water School News

Kindergarten: Mrs. LeRoy Stratton and Lee Stratton were visitors.

Dale Parsons surprised the class by passing homemade fudge. Bert Marshall celebrated his birthday by passing candy bars to the class. One box was sent by his mother, and the other by his grandmother, Mrs. S. N. Marshall.

First Grade: Wyman Mather's birthday was February 1. We are decorating our room for Valentine's day. George Friesel and Rickie Raines have won the car races in the jet group.

Third Grade: The pupils had fun during art period Monday preparing a mail sack for their Valentines. Each pupil has his own mail sack. We decorated our room with some Valentines and put up some new pictures for February.

Fourth Grade: Pupils with perfect spelling papers: Janice Domingo, Richard Elliott, Larry Erhart, Virginia Faris, Georgia Ludwick, Johnny Meecke, Carol Nickels, William Raines, Frances Scott, Charlene Thoren, and Mary Alice Wood.

Richard Lorensen treated us to candy bars on his birthday.

Seventh Grade: Michael Cohen, Helen Mather, Karen Mather, Connie Rector, and Ruth Wiles received 100 in the final test in spelling.

In the March of Dimes the seventh grade gave $5.88 to help the cause of those less fortunate than they.
