Robert Burks and two of his granddaughters, Sally and Nancy Pierce of Lincoln, were Sunday afternoon visitors of the former's sister, Mrs. Ruth Davis. A question box has been placed in the vestibule of the Christian church, and Rev. Horn gives the answers from the pulpit.

Mrs. Skeen is getting along quite well at the Ebeler home. Her broken shoulder has been set.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Bennett of Havelock were callers on Mrs. Ella Rosenow, her aunt, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Ed Hall, a cousin, called on her Wednesday. Mrs. Rosenow is at the home of Mrs. Monning at this time.

Mrs. Glen Thomas is at her office work again after being at home with the flu last week. The George Blessing family and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Norris of Avoca were guests of Mrs. Grace Blessing and Richard on Sunday at their home near Murdoch. The Norris couple attended church in Elmwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lanin are the parents of a son born Sunday, March 6, at St. Elizabeth hospital in Lincoln. The mother was Beverly Stolz.

Red Cross Plea

Help others in time of trouble by joining the Red Cross, asks Emily Gonzales, chairman of the Elmwood Red Cross fund campaign.

The Red Cross has the following programs: Services to the armed forces and veterans, blood program, disaster, safety, volunteer, international relations, nursing services and Junior Red Cross. Join now and serve.

Over 100 persons attended the evening dinner at the Methodist church on Saturday. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Orest Cook for the supper were Mr. and Mrs. John Turner and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hatt, all of Lincoln. Others from the capital city were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Kuehn, the latter couple being aunt and uncle of Mrs. Harold Strabel.

Attending the county fellowship meeting at the Avoca Congregational church on Sunday night were Rev. and Mrs. Horn; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Engelking; Mr. and Mrs. Watson Jones; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hoffmann and Roberta. The sermon was largely for the young people and a large number of them was in attendance. They enjoyed a social hour after the service. Soloist was Ramona Jones Jensen. The banner went to Alvo Methodist again.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tooker and family of Silver Creek visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Cook, on Sunday. On the day before the Cooks were in Greenwood when the family was dividing the things of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mathis. Mr. Mathis was a coin collector and there were so many there was not time to evaluate the worth, so the division was made by weight to the several surviving children.

Ona Lee Kunz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Kunz, missed some school last week because of the flu. Her little brother, Merlin, had it too.

Senior Fellowship

Next Sunday, March 13, the senior fellowship groups of the Methodist church will join with the entire church group in a basket dinner at noon, and there will be no evening meeting of senior fellowship.

Mr. Charles Marshall was to have had charge of this meeting, and since he is in the hospital, it was decided to not have the evening meeting.

But the third Sunday of April we will have Chancellor A. Leiland Forrest as a guest speaker, and senior fellowship is inviting the Elmwood high school senior class and their parents as special guests to hear Chancellor Forrest.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Lashley and children have moved to their new home in south part of town.

Harlan Kunz injured a finger quite badly last week when it caught in a corn sheller.

Farm prices rose two per cent between mid-December and mid-January, but were about six per cent below those of a year ago. 9.4 per cent under what they were two years ago when President Eisenhower entered the White House, and 22 per cent lower than the record high in February, 1951, when the Korean war was going on.
