Her face mirrors the appeal which she's making as poster dog for the 1955 fund-raising campaign of the non-profit organization.

Fall Hurts Arm

Mrs. Eugenia DeLes Dernier fell on the way to church last Sunday and dislocated her right elbow. Dr. Tyson happened on the scene in time to put her arm back in socket. In the afternoon her daughters, Ina and Rene came down from Omaha.

When they were unable to persuade her to return home with them, they made arrangements with Mrs. Neva Read to help out in the home until she is once more able to resume her usual activities.

Puppy for Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Gomer Worthan, Betty Jo and Dianne and Mr. Otto Lushinsky were Friday evening supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rice and family. The supper was given honoring Betty Jo's birthday. The birthday was made happier by a little puppy given her by her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kitchen of Lincoln were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Englekemier. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Berner and family of Louisville were Sunday dinner guests. In the afternoon and evening Mrs. Bud Christwiser of Plattsmouth, Mrs. Harold Whitecock, son and daughter of Lincoln, were all there to visit together.

Shower Is Given

A miscellaneous shower was held in the fellowship room of the Christian church last Friday night honoring Peggy Frans and Clifford Rogers. All members of the church and Sunday school were invited. The evening was spent with a pantomime and games. At the proper time the gifts were unwrapped and lunch was served by the hostesses.

NEW DESTROYER

The U. S. S. Forrest P. Sherman, first in a new line of all-purpose Navy destroyers, recently was launched at Bath, Maine. The ship is somewhat larger than the 2,425-ton destroyers of World War II but the use of aluminum alloys in the superstructure has kept the weight increase to a minimum. Present plans call for building ten more Sherman-type destroyers.

Happy Housekeepers

The Happy Housekeepers 4H club met Saturday, March 5 at their leader's home.

Golda Wannemaker, president was in charge of the business meeting. Following the roll call and the reading of the minutes, the group discussed the dance they will do at the Share the Fun Festival.

Geraldine Michelsen and Golda Wannemaker were chosen to serve at the next meeting.

The lesson "Sleeping Comfortably," was read and discussed by the members. A well made bed is more comfortable than one carelessly made. The meeting closed by the saying of the 4-H pledge and the pledge to the American Flag.

Following the meeting a surprise birthday party was held for Maria Gardner who celebrated her 12th birthday on Sunday, March 6. A card table covered with a green and white cloth, was centered with a lovely cake baked by Bonita Noble and Cathy Callahan. Balloons showered above the table from a light.

Maria opened the many lovely gifts received from her friends. Games were played and Bonita, Cathy, and Kay Clark served ice cream and cake.

Our next meeting will be April
