Response Is Good On Polio Vaccine Requests to Date

Request forms, literature and information has gone out to various schools and parents in Cass county on planned vaccinations for polio. The first report in showed the reaction favorable to the program.

If the Salk vaccine, which was tried experimentally on children in various parts of the nation last year, is licensed as a good immunization agent, probably early in April, the vaccine will be offered to the 700 first and second grade children in Cass county in a program set up through the county health board.

L. A. Behrends, county superintendent of schools and secretary of the county health board, said today that one school has reported back on requests sent to parents. Greenwood reported 22 requests for the vaccinations have been received from parents of first and second graders in that school. The enrollment in those two grades at Greenwood is 22.

Various points have been set up to carry on the vaccinations in the county, usually in the towns, provided the serum is licensed.

WHAT IS IT?

The 10th Anniversary of The Schreiner Drug

Contest Winner - MRS. CLEM WOSTER

We want to take this opportunity to thank all the people in this community, for making our move to Plattsmouth, 10 years ago, a happy and successful one.

No doubt, this would be a good time to have a big anniversary sale, but we feel differently about it. What we would like to do at this time, is to just have you come into our store; let us greet all of you who have made our business relations in Plattsmouth so pleasant, the past ten years. We deeply appreciate your patronage, and invite you to come in Monday... sign the register for 10 free gift awards, and let us give you the individual gift we have for you.

We would like to thank the Plattsmouth Journal Staff and Vern Waterman, Advertising Mgr., for so successfully handling this campaign for us. After all it was kept on the Q. T. for one year, and yet published in the paper.
