Jim McMillian, 37-year-old assistant manager of a Plattsmouth garage, will be the Republican candidate for a 2-year city council term from the second ward, a post now held by Clark Finney, a Democrat.

Mr. McMillian has been a resident of Plattsmouth since 1939 except for time spent with the army signal corps after entering the service in 1942 and returning in 1948. He spent nearly two years overseas during World War II.

Mr. McMillian was born at Omaha and went to school there. He is a member of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars, having served for two years as quartermaster of the VFW.

He is a member of Masonic orders and is presently recorder for the Mt. Zion Commandery. He has been active in Cub Scout work for the past year and is presently secretary-treasurer and advancement man for the local troop.

He is married and has two

Jim McMillian children, Warren, 11 and Carroll Anne, 3. The McMillians live at 1104 Third Avenue.

Jim Seybold Is Elected Region Youth President

Jim Seybold of Plattsmouth was elected president of the region as approximately 150 young people met at the First Evangelical and Reformed Church in Omaha last Sunday afternoon and evening to organize a Regional Youth Fellowship. Twelve young people from St. Paul's Church at Plattsmouth attended.

The meeting began at 3:30 p.m. with devotions. Presentation of various Social Problems followed. Business Meeting was held from 5 to 6 p.m. Covered dish supper at 6:30 followed by Skits, Songs, Magic.

Evening worship service was conducted by the host Youth Fellowship.

Address was given by Dr. E. J. Kuncel, instructor at South High. His subject, "How Great Is Your Burden?" Dr. Kuncel, being blind, helped make our burdens much lighter.

The next regional meeting will be held at Columbus.

Pleasant Ridge 49ers Meeting Mynard Church

The Pleasant Ridge 49ers met in the Mynard church, March 5.

The meeting was opened by vice president Fred Meisinger, and the minutes were read by Mary Sullivan.

The discussion was about feeding stillborn. The facts show that it is best to feed calves stillborn about the last few months of feeding.

We also at the meeting told how many lbs. of feed we were feeding our calves.

Our leader asked if we have had halters on our calves, and almost everyone has.

We plan to ear tag the calves in April sometime.

The refreshments were served by Mrs. Wild.

Our next meeting will be at Sterling Ingwersons.

County Officers Halt Break-ins; Three Arrested

tered were unlocked by a key obtained by Van Horn. The thief admitted forcing the kitchen supply room door and removing about 10 ice cream bars. Money in the rooms amounted to about $20.

March 7 — City Cafe, Louisville. Bauers did the actual breaking and entering while Van Horn remained on the street as a lookout. Break-in was made about midnight.

March 12 — Patterson Recreation parlor, Weeping Water. Break-in pulled by Bauers alone.

March 12 — City Cafe, Weeping Water. This was also pulled by Bauers alone.

Box is the only one of the five who has no previous record with the sheriff's office, says Solomon. Van Horn is currently out on three year federal parole for violation of the Dyer Act.

Charges of breaking and entering were filed against all the youths except Elliott who is with delinquency to be heard Friday, March 18. This charge was filed against Elliott because of his age, according to Solomon.

Former Plattsmouth Resident Invited To Lunch With Ike

A former Plattsmouth resident will lunch with the president soon.

This was learned when Mathew Herold, formerly of Plattsmouth, now of New York City, visited with his mother, Mrs. Henry Herold, and his aunt, Miss Barbara Gering, in Plattsmouth on the weekend.

Mr. Herold will present a check for $100,000 from the Pfeiffer Foundation at a luncheon with President Eisenhower, for a medical center in Korea.

Mr. Herold has left to meet his wife who is vacationing in Tucson, Ariz., and on their return to New York, he will make the journey to Washington, D. C. to attend the luncheon.

PACIFIC FLEET

In a statement which left the Chinese Reds guessing, Admiral Felix R. Stump Commander of the U.S. Pacific Fleet, declared, "If the United States is willing, we can defend anything against the Communist." The Admiral did not specifically mention the Communist-menaced Matsu Islands, however, but it was understood that his "anything" included them, if orders were given to protect them.
