High School Staff Elmwood Completed

ELMWOOD (Special) — Only two teaching positions remain to be filled in the Elmwood school system for next year as the board of education could count on a full staff otherwise. Fifth and sixth grade teachers remain to be hired.

Clarence Soucek, superintendent at Talmage for the past two years, and formerly superintendent at Bradshaw for nine years, has been hired as Elmwood superintendent for 1955-56.

Mrs. Ruth Goebey, Mrs. William Mickelson and Miss JoAnn Hagemester were all rehired and complete the high school staff.

Mrs. Sara Whittemore, Mrs. Doris Parriott, and Mrs. Virginia Piening were re-hired as elementary teachers. Mrs. Bessie Soucek will teach the third and fourth grade.

Mr. and Mrs. Soucek have one son, a freshman at the University, and will move to Elmwood this summer when housing is available.
