How the law of divine Love revealed by Christ Jesus offers redemption from sin and limitation will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Doctrine of Atonement."
Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (19:6): "Jesus aided in reconciling man to God by giving man a truer sense of Love, the divine Principle of Jesus' teachings, and this truer sense of Love redeems man from the law of matter, sin, and death by the law of Spirit—the law of divine Love."
The Golden Text is from Mark (10:45): "The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many."

Growth in Grace Is a Process Which Never Stops

THE apostle, Peter, in the closing of his Second Epistle, admonished his fellow Christians to "grow in grace, and in the knowledge of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ."
With regard to the great essentials of the Gospel of Christ in its proclamation of the power and saving grace of God, and in the application and manifestation of the Gospel in personal character and conduct, there was no division among the great founders of Christianity, regardless of how much they might differ on minor matters.
So Peter, in his call for growth in grace, is only expressing what Paul emphasized in many ways throughout his Epistles. In Paul's epistles the word "grace" occurs twice as often as in all the rest of the New Testament. A commentator has pointed out that it is the first word of greeting, and the last word of farewell, in Paul's letters.
In Luke, the reference is to "the gracious words" of Jesus, as He spoke in the synagogue at Nazareth. And in Colossians, Paul advises the disciples there to "let (their) speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt." (A good counsel for our own time, especially as it is a way of knowing "how to answer every man.")
But grace, for Paul, in greeting, farewell, conversation, or manners always had its meaning in the grace of God manifest in Jesus Christ. Here, as it was the source and power of salvation, was the source of power for Christian living.
It was not something static; attained once-and-for-all and never changing or growing. It was dynamic; a force ever-present and ever-active.
Grace, one of the most precious riches given to us by Christ, is as inexhaustible as it is unsearchable.
