Mrs. Elmer Pike held an Easter party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Warren for her Sunday school class last Saturday afternoon. The young folks had a wonderful time coloring eggs and playing games. Hostess served delicious refreshments in the late afternoon.

Mrs. Mollie Garrens was celebrating her birthday one day last week by being a guest of Mrs. Martha Pickering. Other guests were Mrs. Millie LaRue, Mrs. Jim Roddy and Mrs. Lizzie Taylor. Of course there was a nice big birthday cake to make this event a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Dysart spent the Easter weekend in Plattsburgh. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Rihn.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fitzpatrick visited Orville Hathaway who is a patient in the Clarkson hospital, on last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Pickens of Denver, Colo., spent a few days with Mr. Pickens' mother, Mrs. Hattie Pickens, and his sister, Mrs. Bertha Hathaway. Mr. and Mrs. Pickens are moving to Council Bluffs.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pike's Easter Sunday dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Warren; Miss Warden and Miss Thomas of Lincoln and Carol and Tommy Pike.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Drenman of Waukesha, Wisc., have been spending a few days over the weekend visiting Mrs. Drenman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harrah, Sr., and brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harrah. They also visited the parents of Mr. Drenman at Nebraska City.

The Baptist church held special Easter services last Sunday evening. The Lincoln Business Men's Christian League presented a musical Easter program with Herb Jost as director. Several of the guests gave short talks.

About thirty members of the Masonic Lodge attended Easter morning church services at the Methodist church last Sunday in a body. The ladies of the church had brought in many beautiful Easter lilies and several bouquets of Jonquils and Snapdragons. Carol Ann Pike sang "The Holy City," accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Snodgrass, and Mrs. Ora Guerra on the piano. The choir had a special number also.

Community Club Holds Last Meet

The last meeting for the school year of the Community Club was held on Monday evening, April 11th, at the schoolhouse.

After a short business session, which was conducted by the president, Don Wolfe, the program committee which was Mrs. Clarence Beccard and Mrs. Ollie Attebery, entertained the folks by playing a number of games which kept everyone "in stitches." The last game was a "spell down" for the older group and later another was played by the grade children. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Myrtle Kendall, Mrs. Gene Roddy, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Barritt.

Plattsburgh Kids Entertain Union Woman's Club Meet

UNION (Special)—April meeting of the Union Woman's club was held on Tuesday afternoon, April 5, with Mrs. Melvin Todd as hostess and Mrs. L. G. Todd as co-hostess.

Mrs. Howard Snodgrass, the president, called the meeting to order. Mrs. George Rieke was leader of the afternoon's program but was not able to be there for the opening of the meeting. Mrs. Melvin Todd introduced the Plattsburgh high school boys' quartette who were: Bill Todd, Marion Hill, Bob Carr and Terry Ernst. They sang three very fine numbers. Mrs. Todd then introduced five Plattsburgh high school girls, all members of Job's Daughters. They gave several musical numbers.

Donna Ernst sang "Tweedle-Dee-Dee." She was accompanied on the piano by Mike Shellenbarger. Jeanne Weiss gave two very fine acrobatic numbers. "Tik Tok Polka" and "Wait for Me, Darling." Carol Davis and Janice Lancaster were heard in a piano duet, "Canadian Capers," and Nancy Todd played "In Rose Land."

Mrs. Rieke read an Easter poem, taken from Ideals magazine. All of this part of the program was enjoyed by the ladies. Mrs. Herman Comer conducted the Easter devotions. Plans were made for the next meeting which will be May 3rd at the church. It will be a tea, observing music week guest day. The ladies enjoyed the plant exchange later in the afternoon for roll call.

Hostesses served colorful refreshments of lime sherbet topped with an Easter basket cake, nuts and coffee. There were 33 members and guests present.
