

Janice O' Donnell Entertains Junior Legion Auxiliary

Junior American Legion Auxiliary met at the home of Janice O'Donnell Friday for their regular May meeting.

Joyce McClanahan, chairman, presided at the business session with a good attendance of the membership present.

Colors were advanced by Mary Keeley, sergeant at arms, and Reggie Kellison, color bearer.

Pledge of allegiance to the flag and the preamble repeated in unison. National Anthem was sung by the group and prayer by Chaplain Marcia Lagerstrom was given.

Treasurer's report was given by Sharon Dunlap. Janice O'Donnell was appointed secretary protem.

Reports of various chairmen were heard.

Plans for a party were discussed with time and place to be announced later.

A talent program will be presented by the group in June at the Veteran's hospital in Omaha, and assisting with memorial services on Memorial day were planned.

Appreciation of the group for sale of poppies was given by members Sophia Wolever and Vera Wurga.

Next meeting will be held at the home of Joyce McClanahan with program on "American Flag." Meeting adjourned.

Games were played and prizes awarded to Marcia Lagerstrom, Kathy Curtis, Carol Schreiner, Julie Chovanec and Joyce McClanahan.

Hostess, Janice O'Donnell, assisted by Mrs. Jack O'Donnell and Mrs. Reed, served strawberry short cake and whipped cream, nuts and a cold drink.

Guests were Carolyn Garrison, Anthalee Rizzi, Mary Smith and Sally O'Donnell.

Mary Keeley and Sharon Dunlap appointed an entertainment committee for June meeting.

Merry Workers Club Plan Safety Project

Tuesday May 10th the Merry Workers Club met at the home of Mrs. La Verne Meisinger with Mrs. Arnold Meisinger co-hostess.

The meeting was opened by singing "Bye-bye Bunting" and "Mother." The flag salute was led by Mrs. William Schroeder.

Eighteen members were present with one visitor, Mrs. Otto Meisinger. Mrs. Albert Taylor asked that her name be dropped from the roll.

Mrs. John Hill gave a short report on a pro and con discussion of a possible toll road from Omaha to Lincoln. Mrs. Henry Vinduska and Mrs. Marion Wiles gave an interesting safety report.

The club decided to make a safety project of having some trees removed from the road side across from the Bob Valley farm. Mrs. Ralph Younker volunteered to speak to Commissioner Nolte about the same.

The date for the club tour was set for June 15th and the picnic for June 26th at Riverview Park.

Mrs. Ralph Younker and Mrs. William Schroeder gave us a lesson on the "Care of the Hands and Nails." A couple of games were played with Mrs. Leonard Harvey and Mrs. Blanche Snell winning prizes.

Lunch was served by the hostesses. The club will meet again August 9th with Mrs. Marion Wiles and Mrs. John Hill for a social meeting.

The handicraft lesson will be held in June. Please purchase your own supplies by then if you plan to attend the lesson. If enough do not go our club will present it in the fall. Supplies needed are, Primsa-color pencils, orange carbon paper, 4H or 6H sharp lead pencil, fine sand paper (000), eraser, pattern, object to be colored. The varnishing and waxing can be done later if you prefer.

You will be notified of definite date and place in the Calendar section of paper. Watch for it!

Refreshments were served by our hostesses Mrs. Joe Kunz and Mrs. Raymond Vogt.

G. I.'s GOOD RISKS
The Veterans Administration reports that, after ten years of borrowing money to start businesses, the G. I.'s of the nation are as competent in business as they were in service. American veterans have borrowed $600,000,000 to start or buy into businesses since 1945. More than $125,000,000 has already been paid and only 1,700 veterans have defaulted on loans averaging $823. The loss ratio of .0089 is lower than on non-veteran loans of the same type.

Six High School Students to Get Loan Co. Awards

A $160 scholarship to the University of Nebraska will be awarded to a senior in the Plattsmouth high school this year by the American Loan Plan, President Jay Cherniack announced today.

The American Loan Plan is giving similar scholarships to six other high schools in the state. Selection of the winners will be made by the scholarship committee of each high school. Winners will be selected on the basis of need, scholastic record, demonstrated scholastic potential, character and citizenship. The student must be in the upper third of his class scholastically to be eligible.

Other cities in which the company will award scholarships are Falls City, Columbus, Fremont, Hastings, McCook and Nebraska City.
