

EAGLE

Mrs. John Fischer Correspondent

Valjean Stall, who injured his ankle several weeks ago, has been relieved of the cast and happy to have the same removed for him to handle the farming job.

Mrs. Anna Fifer received word from her daughter, Mrs. Roger Reeves of LaSalle, Colo., that the latter's son's wife, Mrs. Roger Reeves, Jr., also of LaSalle, had undergone major surgery on her throat and all the folks were very much concerned about it. However, word later, gave a more encouraging report, and it is hoped that she will continue to improve. The Reeves family are former Eagle folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Orill Allen of Lincoln were Eagle visitors last Wednesday afternoon.

All Same Deer?

Mr. Fred Wulf reports seeing a small deer on his farm north of town recently. The question in mind—is everyone seeing the same deer or are they becoming more common to this part of Nebraska as well as the western area?

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Denison of near Roca visited in Eagle last Wednesday evening and attended the May festival at the school house. The Denisons are former Eagle residents, living on a farm two miles north, half west of Eagle.

ELMWOOD

Mrs. Grace Plybon
Phone 4-2247

Keith Bornemeier who will soon complete his sophomore year at Wesleyan is employed weekends at the Murdock Lumber Co. He plans to work for them this summer, too.

Mrs. Plybon spent Tuesday in Lincoln. In the afternoon she saw the juvenile delinquency movie, "Blackboard Jungle," at a Lincoln theater. The scene of the story is represented as Los Angeles. The pupils were boys of mixed nationalities.

Corn planting is in full swing in this community. It was in a bedroom where Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hollenbeck were papering that she fell from a high step ladder and was injured. The foot with three angle bones cracked is now in a cast and she can go with crutches a little distance. They now have a table phone to replace the one on the wall so she can talk with her friends. She has received many cards.

Mrs. Plybon received word that a cousin Ray Irwin of New Virginia, Ia., was killed recently when his car collided with a truck. His funeral was held in the Methodist Church and interment was in the New Virginia cemetery. It was in the same church and cemetery where services and burial occurred for former Governor Beardsley who was killed in a similar accident. Mrs. Ray Irwin is a former Weeping Water girl.

Mary Ann Hall who with her mother Mrs. Ted Hall and grandpa, Dr. O. E. Liston, were visiting James Liston in Evergreen. She is in a Denver hospital and it is decided now that it was a bad case of flu.

Mrs. Clayton Doebele has been employed at a Lincoln store ladies department for some time.

Mrs. Ann Gustin has been papering in the homes of Mrs. Manning and Mrs. Rosenkoetter this week. Her friend Viola Everett of Murdock is reported as some better in Syracuse hospital and at the Ward home.

Dudley Doebele is recovering from an injury received when he played ball with the Weeping Water team on Sunday, at Ashland.

Keith Drake is also doing well after he received a face injury in pole vaulting where he had an athletic position in Colorado Springs, won because of his efficiency.

Community Kensington will be held with Alma Clements on May 26, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Perkins of Lincoln visited her daughter Mrs. Thomas and family the first of the week. There are copies of the paper showing pictures and description of Elmwood at the drug store now for those who desire them. This was arranged by Rev. Fintel when he was here.

Herold Krecklow is busy these days making a stairway at the Community Building.

Mrs. G. L. Davis of Manley, Mrs. Herold Krecklow and Mrs. Arlo Pratt attended the funeral of Mrs. Chas. St. John at Nehawka on Tuesday.

A total of 120 children were given the first Salk vaccine earlier this season at the school. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Cook, Mrs. Ralph Dorr and Mrs. Frank Buell attended the Grand Chapter Order of the Eastern Star, the 80th Annual Session, held in the City Auditorium at Fremont May 11th in the afternoon. Mrs. Dorr and Mrs. Buell were among those honored for their 50 years service in the Eastern Star.

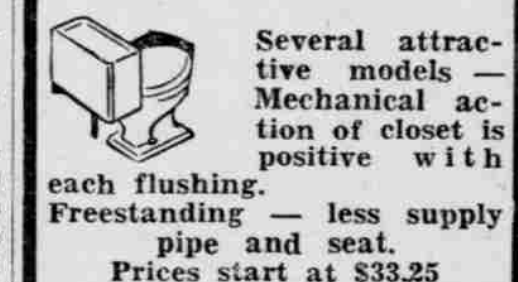

MILITARY SERVICE

Some military service will be required from practically all young American men as long as the conflict with communism exists, declared Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson recently. The nation must "always be alert in defending the principles in which it was founded,"

he said.
"GOBBLEDYGOOK"
The General Service Administration, warning on "gobbledygook" in letters sent out by Government agencies, urged letter writers to adhere to a 4-S formula of shortness, simplicity, strength and sincerity.
