Covered Dish

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Meyer and Jack were hosts at a family covered dish dinner. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pfeiffer, Leo and Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Pfeiffer, Mary Kay, and Allen of Nebraska City; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sand, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sand and Butch of Plattsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Staack and Clarence, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Staack, Henry, Fritz and Patricia, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Staack, Kathy and Tommy of Syracuse; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thoms and Marilyn; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fisher and 3 children of Elmwood; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Thoms and Terry, Mr. and Mrs. George Meyer, James and Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Meyer, Wayne, Dean, Donna and Linda of Avoca; Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Erhart, and Larry and Mr. and Mrs. George Wiles of Weeping Water, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown and Christy and Jo Ann Meyer of Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wenzel and three children of Beatrice came Sunday morning for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Johnson and Irene. At noon they took a picnic lunch and went fishing for the rest of the afternoon.

Rodney Knaup of Weeping Water and Bill Templemeier of Louisville, both of whom attend Peru State Teachers College were business visitors in Chicago, Illinois, over the weekend.

P. E. O. Meets
The Chapter BT, P. E. O. met Friday afternoon with Mrs. Harold Elliott. Mrs. Carl Day was co-hostess.

The program was in charge of Mrs. John Norris, who gave a report on the state convention. Mrs. Earl Cook was a guest.

Happy Housekeepers
Last Thursday evening the Happy Housekeepers 4-H club members, Cathy Callahan, Jane Davis, Kay Clark, Bonita Noble, Helen Mather, Golda Wannemaker, Geraldine Mickelsen and Marla Gardner, their leaders, Mrs. Lewis Baker and Mrs. Richard Norris, and Mrs. E. A. Mickelsen, Jr., and 2 boys, Sandy and Randy Baker, attended the Shrine Circus in Lincoln at the State Fair grounds. We wish to thank E. A. Mickelsen, Jr., who provided the tickets for us and also he, Lewis Baker and Richard Norris for furnishing the transportation. The circus was enjoyed by everyone.

Roberta Knaup entertained seven girls at a slumber party at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knaup's home Friday night following the sophomore class picnic at Louisville. Those present were Evelyn Wiles, Henrietta Wade, Jean Elaine Domingo, Yvonne Domingo, Sara Lorenson, Lois Hauschild and Mary Lou Ashlock.

W. S. C. S. Meets

The W. S. C. S. met Tuesday afternoon, May 10 in the Methodist church parlors with a large crowd attending. Following a short business meeting, Mrs. Ed Sperry conducted the devotions. Her subject was "Be ye doers of the word and not hearers only." Mrs. Richard Lauritzen brought out interesting points on the same subject, pointing out the good done by cooperation and unity in time, talent, and labor and money at home and abroad.

Mrs. T. H. Hanlan conducted joint installation of the officers of the W. S. C. S. and Ruth Circle, closing with the hymn, "Take My Life and Let it Be."

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Harlan presented each officer and appointed secretary with a corsage of lilies of the valley.

The birthday table, in charge of Mrs. Stella Worman, was decorated with beautiful bouquets of flowers in May baskets and birthday napkins. Those present at the table included Mrs. James Kivett, Mrs. Glen Heneger, Mrs. Geo. Schomaker, and Mrs. Lester King. Mrs. Kenneth Wiles was absent.

Annie Maloney Sings for Crowd

Annie Maloney is shown singing on Radio Station WOW's "Slim's Calling" program which originated from this Plattsmouth street platform during Appreciation Day last Saturday put on by Chamber of Commerce members. At left is "Slim" Seated on the platform is Plattsmouth Mayor Leo Meisinger and last year's King Korn Carnival Queen, Marilyn Stoehr. Also appearing were TV's Major Action and Jolly Joe. Chamber members served free pancakes all day to a crowd estimated at 4,000.—(Journal Photo).

Junior Woman's Club

The Junior Woman's club met May 12 for a pot luck supper and hobo party at the farm home of Mrs. Wayne Pederson. Following the supper around a bonfire in the yard, the not-to-good hobos gathered in the Pederson living room (where it was warmer) for their business meeting.

Mrs. Lewis Baker and Mrs. Dick Bickford were voted in as new members.

After the short business meeting the group played several different games of cards and scrabble.

Mrs. Francis Thoren won the prize for being the best hobo.

The four guests present were Mrs. Glen Kirchhoff, Mrs. Bill Reinsch, Mrs. JoAnn Walcott and Mrs. Doris Stutzman.

At the close of the evening, dessert was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rowe and family of Lincoln were Sunday afternoon and evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence King and family.

Ladies Aid Meets

The St. Paul Lutheran Ladies Aid met Wednesday afternoon for their monthly meeting in the basement of the church. This was their first meeting in the new St. Paul Lutheran church. In the absence of Rev. Meyer, Mrs. Bridenstine read a topic from the quarterly.

During the business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Elmer Pearson, the group decided that two ladies would clean the church each week for a month, going in alphabetical order. A kitchen shower for the church is being planned for the month of July. Mrs. Walter Kassube was hostess for the afternoon.

The next meeting will be June 8.

Mrs. A. L. Little of Denver, Colo., is here visiting old friends in Weeping Water. She was a resident, attended school here and taught in the Weeping Water school for a while.

Family Picnic

Sunday, relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Domingo and son, George, honored them at a picnic in the Weeping Water City park. There were around 30 present. Out of towners were: Mr. and Mrs. Julian Canaday of Bloomfield, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson and Clinton Andrew of Norfolk; and Mr. and Mrs. S. Ray Smith of Hardington.

A Timely Topic

A timely topic, "Conference Table at Battlefield," was the topic discussed when the Woman's Association met at the Congregational church May 11. Mrs. Mogens Johnson, president, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Harold Domingo led the devotions, presenting the responsibilities of citizenship and emphasizing the further responsibilities of Christian citizenship. Mrs. Arnold Detmer was the leader of a discussion of the topic, with Mrs. Ester Tefft, Mrs. Joe Bender and Mrs. Bill Newham assisting. Many important facts were mentioned, such as our alertness for detecting propaganda, good or bad; and to learn the facts about current events.

An informative discussion of the United Nations reminded the group of the many problems the UN has had to combat and also the good that has been accomplished through their efforts.

A final thought was that "peace is not only a state of mind, but actually a program of action."

The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Eugene Day, Mrs. Harold Blake, Mrs. E. T. Stacey, Mrs. E. S. Steckley, Mrs. C. V. Wallick, Mrs. L. P. Wolcott, Mrs. W. Davis, Miss Fern Davis and Mrs. Carl Day.

Next meeting will be the mother-daughter luncheon June 8.

Biggest, Most Beautiful, Highest-Powered Car EVER PRICED WITH THE LOWEST!

2195⁰⁰

THE BIG, handsome Pontiac you see here represents the greatest automobile value in America! Keeping in mind the fact that this Pontiac 860 sedan costs less than many models of the lowest-priced cars and much less than stripped economy models of higher-priced makes, consider the many ways in which Pontiac fits so neatly into the fine-car pattern. First of all, Pontiac is big where it counts—in wheelbase. You get a full 122 inches of road-hugging stability and heft—and the secure feeling that goes with it. Pontiac's beauty is Pontiac's alone. No car at any price is so distinctively keyed to the future. Its exclusive Twin-Streak styling and Vogue Two-Toning bear the future-fashioned touch you know will stay in style. When it comes to performance—Pontiac overtakes even far more expensive cars. Its husky, nimble Stratosreak V-8, 200 H.P. with 4-barrel carburetor*, provides more power than any car within hundreds of dollars of Pontiac's modest price. You enjoy the flashing response and reserve power of the industry's most modern V-8 engine design.

Come in soon and drive the most spectacular low-priced car ever built! You'll find there never was a better time to break the small car habit, because Pontiac's very low price puts you solidly and pleasantly into the big-car, fine-car class!

*Optional at extra cost, 180 h. p. standard.
