

Homemakers Summarize Spring Work in Report From Nehawka

NEHAWKA (Special)—Spring events of the Nehawka Future Homemakers of America were summarized here.

Late in April, the Nehawka chapter of the F. H. A. held a mother-daughter tea at the homemaking rooms. The rooms were decorated with bouquets and baskets of spring flowers, making a pretty setting for the occasion.

The installation ceremony was carried out for 1955-1956. New officers are Kay Ward, president; Sharon Ehlers, vice-president; Marlene Meyer, treasurer; Amy Jane Warlick, secretary; Charlene Mayfield, historian; Darlene Murdoch, parliamentarian; Caroline Miller, recreation chairman; Marilyn Whipple, degree chairman; Sharon Kay Dodson, news-reporter and Evelyn Thorne, song leader. Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Mayfield, Mrs. Ehlers and Mrs. Dietl were installed as chapter mothers. Mr. Ward was chosen chapter father for 1955-1956.

At this same meeting the degree ceremony was used in granting the degrees that were earned by the girls this year. Junior homemaker degrees were awarded to Sharon Kay Dodson, Marlene Meyer, Jeannine Cooper. Each of these girls was presented a key, a symbol for their degree. Chapter homemaker degrees were awarded to Kay Ward, Darlene Murdoch, Marilyn Whipple and Sharon Ehlers. The chapter presented each of these girls with a scroll, a symbol of their degree.

Next degree the homemakers work for is State Homemaker. These are awarded by the state twice a year at the state convention in the spring and the officers workshop in June. Three girls working for this are Kay Ward, Darlene Murdoch and Marilyn Whipple.

After a vocal duet by Sharon Ehlers and Charlene Mayfield the girls served a lunch.

On Friday, May 6, the F.H.A. girls met at the homemaking rooms to honor the outgoing seniors and welcome the freshmen of 1955. Kay Ward gave a short farewell talk for the seniors and a welcome to the freshmen. In behalf of the entire chapter, Kay Ward presented each senior girl with a sterling silver thimble, engraved with F.H.A. Janet Cook, the president for 1955 was presented with a tiny gavel which is the symbol that can be worn by a president of an F. H. A. chapter.

The senior girls are Janet Cook, Suzy Switzer, Janice Switzer, Jeannine Cooper, Judy Dodson and JoEllen Nixon. Incoming freshmen girls present were Marilyn Polard, Carol Stovall, Sue Johnson, Gladys Nixon, Rosie Stoll and Mary Briley.

The group went to Tuckers park for a picnic. Refreshment committee, Evelyn Thorne, Darlene Murdoch, Twila Hicks, assisted by the chapter mothers, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Ehlers, Mrs. Thorne and Mrs. Dodson, prepared and served a lovely picnic dinner.

STYLE SHOW HELD
On Tuesday, May 10 the homemaking girls held a style show at the auditorium. The stage was decorated with baskets of spring flowers.

Freshmen girls modeled aprons and skirts they had made in their projects this year. Second year girls modeled cotton dresses they had made in class this spring. Evelyn Thorne modeled a skirt she had made for her home experience.

Third year girls modeled dresses, skirts, blouses and shirts they made this year.

Theme of the style show was carried out around the idea, "It's hard to be sixteen". They described their garments with original verses narrated by Kay Ward and Marilyn Whipple. Three vocal numbers given were "Sweet Violets", 3rd year girls; "Alice Blue Gown" by 2nd year girls; "The Blue Skirt Waltz", 3rd year girls. Miss Ward and Marilyn Whipple were accompanists.

Kay Ward, Darlene Murdoch, Caroline Miller, Sharon Ehlers, Marlene Meyer and Mrs. Friedli plan to attend the F. H. A. officers workshop at Crete June 5-7.

Mrs. Henel Friedli, homemaking instructor, plans to take graduate work at the University of Nebraska this summer.
