Crochet Opportunity Knocks With Cass County Fair Opening

Opportunity is knocking loudly at the door of each talented crocheter, announcing fame and fortune in the 1955 Nationwide Crochet Contest. This urgent call is made in behalf of Cass County, Fair which is opening on Aug. 23 at Weeping Water. Crocheters interested in winning prizes and prizes for their workmanship, are reminded that only a few weeks remain before the preliminary judging of the Contest at the Fair.

Those entries winning special Nationwide Crochet Contest blue ribbons are eligible for the national judging in New York City, held in November. Over $3000 in cash and three all-expense trips to New York are being offered to the prize-winning contestants who compete in the finals. A Grand National Champion will be chosen and awarded $500, the Men's Champion and Teen-Age Champion will receive $100 each. All three will enjoy free vacations in New York City and be presented with championship trophies by a noted personality.

All entries must be made of mercerized crocheted cotton in any size thread up to and including 100. Mercerized crocheted cotton with a metallic strand is also eligible. A contestant may enter as many articles as desired, but each must fulfill the Contest requirements and be completed during 1955, although not necessarily started this year.

There are 16 contest classifications for crocheters to enter: tablecloths, bedspreads, lunch-cloths, centerpieces, buffet and vanity sets, chair sets, doilies, scarves and wall panels, pot holders and hot plate mats, place mats, other household accessories, edgings and insertions, fashion accessories, ladies over 65, men only and teen-age girls.

Local crocheters are urged to add speed to their stitches so that their entries will be ready for the judging at the Fair. Further information is available from the Fair Secretary or Women's Department Superintendant.
