Legion Loses 19-2 Baseball To Springfield

Springfield's Junior Legion baseball team blasted their Plattsmouth counterparts nearly off the diamond in a game played at the Plattsmouth field Wednesday night.

Springfield overhauled the Platters with a 5-hit pitching stint by Zimmerman and a score of 19 to 2.

Plattsmouth scored once in the opening inning when Bob Wilson walked. Hild gained first when hit by a pitch and Kaferberger singled. They scored again in the second on successive singles by Wilson and Hild.

Springfield gained the lead going into the second inning 2 to 1 and wouldn't give it up. They blasted Platter hurler Al Fairfield for five hits, including a lost-in-the-grass homer by Vincent, for four runs in the third; added three on walks, errors and a hit in the fourth, six on four hits, walks and errors in the fifth and five on four hits and errors in the sixth.

Score by innings:
Springfield 204 365 19
Plattsmouth 110 000 2

— Murray —
Mrs. Sheldon Smith has started up her Campfire Girls so they will be able to earn a good many points during the summer months, before school starts.

One more school district has been brought into Murray, so it will be necessary to buy another school bus to haul the children.

Midgets Stop Springfield 7-5 To Hang Up 7th Win of Season

Plattsmouth's American Legion Midgets Wednesday night ran their baseball record to 7 wins, 3 losses as they halted the Springfield Midgets on the Plattsmouth field by a score of 7 to 5.

The Plattsmouth Legion Juniors, playing the second game of the evening, lost to Springfield Juniors by a score of 19 to 5.

The Plattsmouth Midgets carried a 7-2 lead into the fifth inning when three walks and two errors lifted the Springfield count to 5 runs before the Plattsmouth team could put out the fire.

Allan Wiles, starting Plattsmouth pitcher, was in trouble early when Springfield's Latham walked. Reitz singled behind him, an error put Osborn aboard and Mills hit a double to drive in two runs. But Tom Winscott came on to get them out and hold Springfield scoreless until the fifth.

Plattsmouth scored five in the first inning to take a lead they held all the way. Larry Walton, Denny Melsinger, Jim Shown and Roger Smith walked and Tom Winscott, Bill Long and Allan Wiles furnished singles for the scoring parade. The Platters scored again in the third on a double by Long and a single by Wiles and a single run in the fourth on Springfield catchers error, plus singles by Winscott and Melsinger.

Score by innings:
Springfield 200 03 5
Plattsmouth 501 1x 7

Dreamer Rites Held Elmwood Church July 8

ELMWOOD (Special) — Funeral services for Clara Catherine Dreamer, 82, were held at the Elmwood Evangelical United Brethren Church, July 8. The Rev. T. H. Kampman, pastor of the church, assisted by the Rev. E. F. Halst of Lincoln, a former pastor, conducted the rites. Burial was in Elmwood cemetery.

Mrs. Dreamer died at Unadilla July 6. She had been in ill health a number of years.

Music for the service was by Mrs. Norman Bornemeier at the piano and a vocal quartet composed of William Vogt, Howard Vogt, Henry Bornemeier and Alvin Reuter. Bearers were Lawrence Bell, Irvin Kunz, Ralph Kunz, Henry Vogt, Joe Kunz and Ray Parsell.

Clara Catherine Dreamer was born August 23, 1872, to Frederick and Gertrude Schmelzel at Pekin, Ill. At the age of one and a half years she came to Nebraska with her parents to a farm in Richardson County, near Humboldt.

Two sisters and three brothers preceded her in death. She was married to John C. Dreamer May 11, 1892, at the courthouse in Lincoln. They made their home on a farm near Alvo, until 1918 when they moved to Elmwood. After 1943 they made their home with their youngest daughter, Nora on a farm near Unadilla.

Her husband Chris died August 19, 1948.

Mrs. Dreamer had been a member of the Elmwood Evangelical United Brethren Church since 1926.

She is survived by one sister, Barbara, of Humboldt; two daughters, Nora Leifers of Unadilla and Blanche Wiechel of Alvo; by two sons, Leonard of Lincoln, and Earl of Alvo; also by seven grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren.

Mary Stewart Rites Held Murray Church

MURRAY — Funeral services for Mrs. Mary S. Stewart were held in the United Presbyterian Church of Murray on Thursday afternoon, July 7. The Rev. Roy P. Morris, pastor of the church, assisted by Dr. William French of Des Moines and Dr. H. E. Lobaugh, of Topeka, officiated.

Burial was the following day beside the body of her late husband, in Redwood City, Minn.

Mrs. Stewart was preceded in death by her husband, Dr. Neil Stewart, in Murray on July 2, 1943. He was pastor of the Murray Church from 1937 until his death. Since that time, Mrs. Stewart has lived in South Dakota and Iowa. She died in Clarinda, Iowa, on July 5.

Mrs. Stewart is survived by one son, Dr. A. K. Stewart, secretary of the Board of American Missions of the United Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., and by a daughter, Mrs. Lorena McKie, of Red Oak, Iowa. Two grand sons and two granddaughters also survive, as do many friends in the Murray community, and in other places where Dr. Stewart served as a minister.
