In a rainbow? No one knew for sure, he didn't want to wait for another rainbow — so he made one. He took the garden hose and sprayed it into the air in bright sunlight!

Goodwill Ambassadors—When Begley and Peck opened their new office Monday, they were pleasantly surprised. Shortly after eight o'clock Clem Wosler, Carl Schneider and Bob Walling appeared on the scene. Bob was in the center carrying a huge bouquet of flowers and Clem and Carl were on each side bearing the good wishes of the trio, and helping deliver their floral gift.

Strictly Pleasure—Officer Jenkins was driving down Main Street this week with a young boy in the patrol car. It is always easy to determine whether or not it is an official ride by the expression on the face of the lad. This fellow had an air supreme bliss.

Visiting on Main Street—Lieut. Allan White of the USN was seen on Main Street last week. He is a graduate from P. H. S. and later Annapolis. His small son was with him and was trying to get his dad to promote a ride on the fire engine for him.

The Passing Scene—Some of the fellows on Main Street seem to prefer to wear both suspenders and belt—why be half safe, huh? Lawyer Francis Casey walking down the street carrying a broom—gonna sweep that jury off their feet. Dorothy McIsinger back on Main Street, working in a beauty shop. Chris Bullin of Soennichsens on vacation this week. Sharon Harbaugh is a new clerk at Gambles.

Dollar Days a Success—Local business houses report that the public gave the Dollar Days, staged by local merchants, an enthusiastic reception. Next big sales special will come with the Back-to-School promotion to take place in late August.

Easy Living—The sparrows on Main Street have their own cradle-to-the-grave security set-up. They wait for the cars to park and then hop up through the grill and get the bugs and hoppers out of the radiator vents. The only flaw is that business isn't so good in the winter.

CIVILIAN EMPLOYMENT—For the first time in the history of this country, civilian employment reached 64,000,000 during the month of June, according to a Department of Commerce estimate. This figure represents an increase of about 1,300,000 since May.

FOREIGN BUSINESS INVESTMENTS—More than 2,000 United States companies, with investments abroad exceeding $16,000,000, are spreading American know-how ideals and ideas in what amounts to a free enterprise Point Four program.
