Mrs. Grace Plybon Phone 4-2247

Miss Ethel Langhorst is having a two-week vacation from work. The first week she spent at her home. Mrs. Howard Stege is in charge of the store now.

Lincoln Visitors, Birthday Greetings

Mrs. Ella Rosenow was honored on Wednesday evening, July 14, when a group of five ladies came from Lincoln to spend some time with her. They were members of her former birthday club on D Street in the capital city. This is a group that has met for 20 years. Those coming here were Mrs. Elmer Cedardahl, Mrs. James Hallstrom, Mrs. Charlie Simon, Mrs. Laura Shively, and Mrs. Mata Kruse.

On that day she received a birthday card shower numbering 28 cards. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stohman brought a birthday cake from their Louisville home. Mrs. Ruth Monning is hostess to Ella while she is ill and callers are welcome.

Thursday callers on Mrs. Rosenow were Miss Jessie Bragg and Miss Hazel Billows of Raymond. With them was a missionary friend of Jessie, Miss Mildred Albertson who plans to return to India when her furlough is completed. Mildred's father was a Methodist preacher in Nebraska in earlier years.

On Saturday Jerry Grow of Monte Vista, Colorado, visited Mrs. Rosenow. He is the son of the former Lois Bragg. He recently graduated from a school of mines and he will be located in Seattle, Washington.

Major and Mrs. Paul Legg, and Paula have been visiting his mother, Mrs. Watson Jones, and Mr. Jones for a month. On Wednesday they left for Trenton, N. J. From there they will go to Nancy, France, where he will be stationed.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stege were her mother, Mrs. Rudolph, of Eagle, her sister, Mrs. Florence Weber and children of Syracuse; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Stubbendeck of Unadilla, and Mrs. Addie Howe.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hansen and family are having company from Florida. It is his sister and husband who came Tuesday night.

Mrs. Brinton Sr., is recovering from a broken arm suffered a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Roy Rhoden fell from her back porch steps early this week and broke a bone in her left arm. However she is left handed.

Mrs. Syd Moore is another one who fell Thursday and she received a back injury.

Mrs. C. T. Charling fell over a lawn mower that was in her back hall and injured ligaments in a knee, so she is on crutches. Her granddaughter, Joan Charling, is helping out in her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Pyle, Charlie and Lorraine of Seattle, Wash., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Stanton, and with other relatives. She was Idella Buell.

John and Bob Hall are painting the Ralph Greene house this week. They have finished doing the houses of Dr. Liston and Dr. Knop. Later they will paint the Fred Lake home, and on their own place the Ted Hall home.

American Legion officers elected on Thursday evening for next year are: commander, Alfred Davis; vice commander, Jerry Bornemeier; adjutant, Paul Eveland; finance officer, Virgil Miller, of Lincoln; chaplain, Herbert Hulfish; activities committee, Harold Brummer, Walter Fleischman; service officer, Emmett Cook; sergeant-at-arms, Dwight Clements; historian, George Eidemiller.

Apricots and grasshoppers each claimed their share of attention this week.

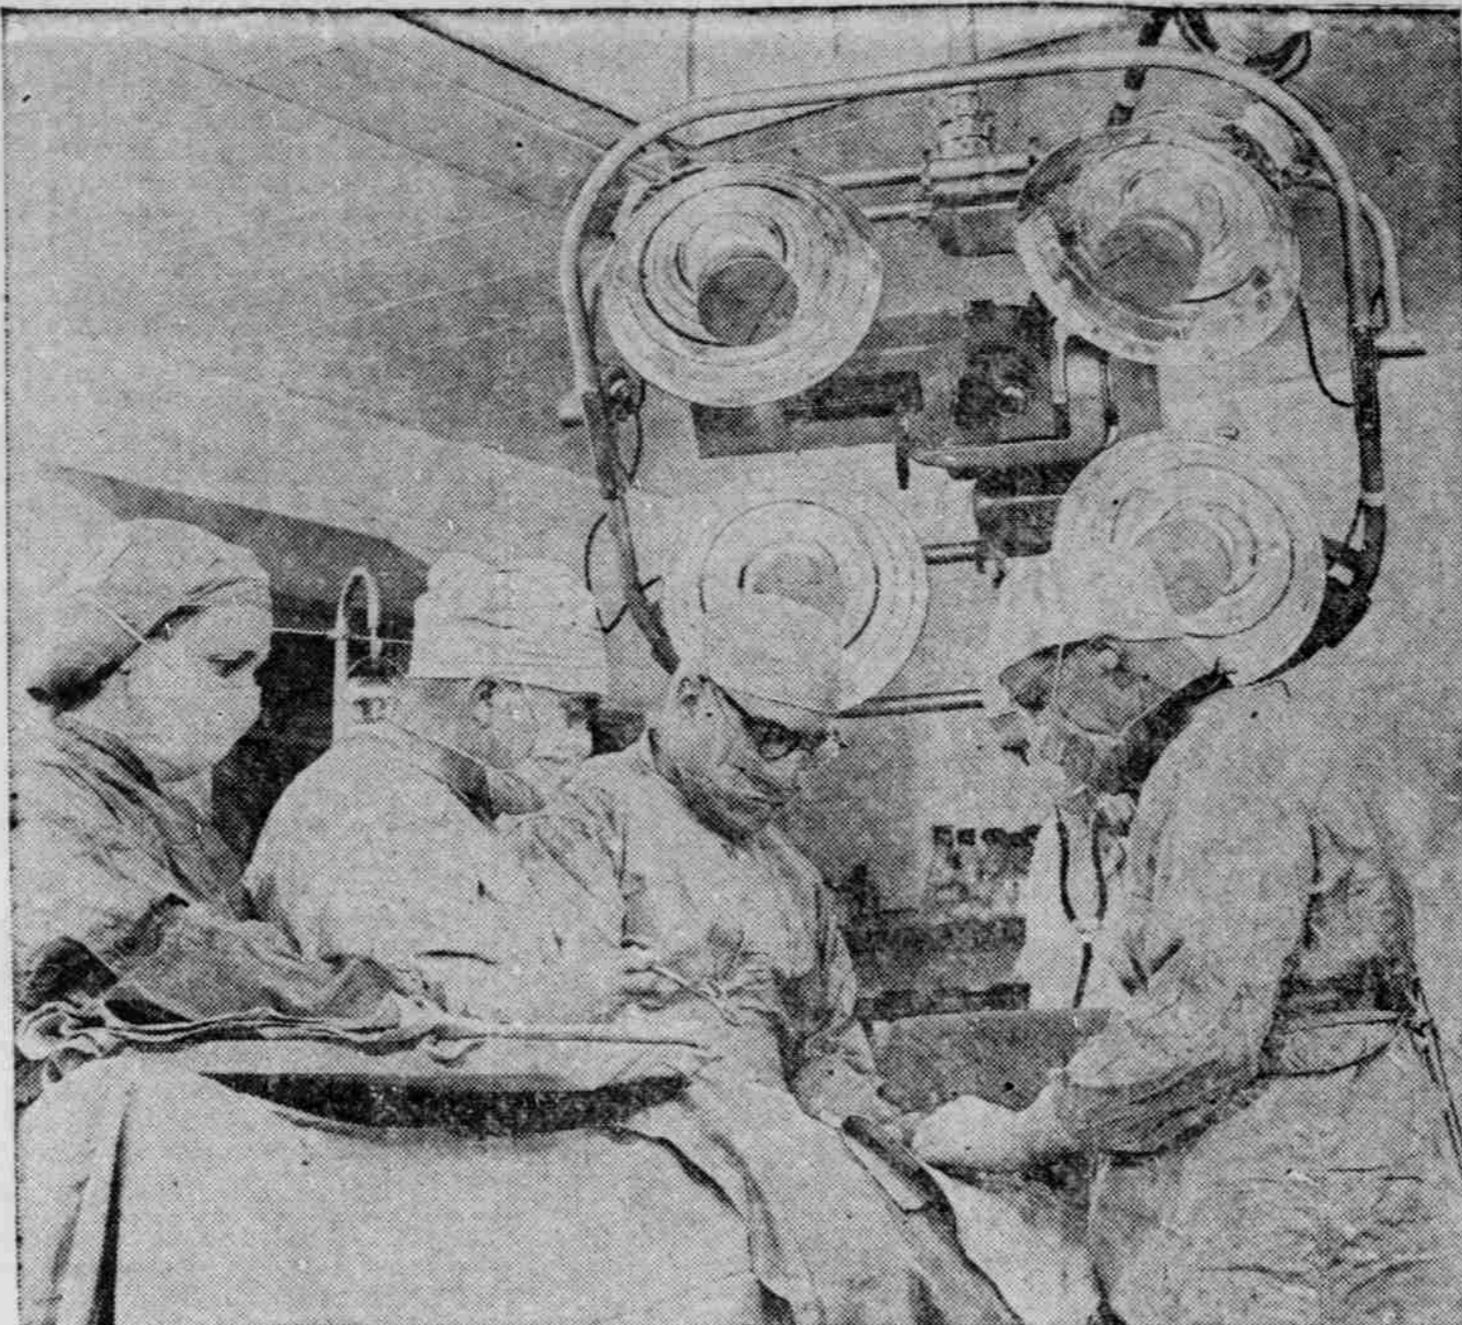

Earlier this month Mr. and Mrs. Herold Krecklow went on Tuesday to Falls City to attend the funeral of his uncle, Mr. Andrew Krecklow.

Enjoying a park picnic on Monday evening were Alma Clements, Ruth Monning, Nettie Mendenhall, Emily Gonzales, Lena Rieke and Grace Wood.

John and Gordon Jeffers and Albert Kunz were business visitors in Plattsmouth on Tuesday.

Eastern Star members met on the porch of Mrs. Raymond Eveland for their July meeting. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Melvin Miller and Mrs. Howard Pool. President Mrs. Audrey Stroemer of Alvo was business session leader.

Margaret Brunkow is employed at St. Elizabeth Hospital this vacation. Her work deals with diets for patients. Her sister, Hope Brunkow Lomax is much improved of her polio, having treatments at Lincoln General for some time.

DELICATE OPERATION is demonstrated under television color camera by Maj. Gen. Leonard D. Heaton, commanding general of Walter Reed Army Medical Center. The 4 1/2-pound camera is suspended in specially-designed lighting fixture. Lights and camera are synchronized so that when surgeon has best lighting on field of operation, camera will pick up scene without obstruction. Camera is operated by remote control. General Heaton wears a chest microphone and hearing-aid type earphone, keeping in constant communication with students in viewing room. He lectures and answers questions as he proceeds with surgery.

Dick Brummer had a major operation at St. Elizabeth hospital on Saturday.

Mrs. Marybelle Cates and children have visited her mother and sister, Blanche and Alice Kuehn. The Kuehns went with them to Moscow, Iowa, for a visit with a sister, Mrs. Jo Lang and family. They will visit Mrs. Ruth Schroeder at Decatur, Ill., then go on to Maryland where Mr. Cates is stationed.

Oris Richert went to Detroit recently and came home with a new car. But on Wednesday evening it was in collision with a county road truck. The car was badly damaged. A patrolman was called to the scene.

Marion McCrory and his grandson, Bob Reuter, started by car to Scottsbluff on Sunday morning. They are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nelson, who has a jewelry store there. Mrs. Nelson was Grace McCrory.

After attending funeral services for their aunt, Mrs. Laura Dernier, on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Deles Dernier of Columbia, Mo., went from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Pratt to Lincoln, where they visited his mother, Mrs. Linnie Deles Dernier. Linnie was not able to attend the service here.

Tommy Hewitt, who has been visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Nettie Mendenhall here, returned to his home at Diller. He will get to be in a nice new school house next year.

LOOK AT THOSE BICEPS!

A father taking his 12-year-old son to the movies picked out what he thought was a cowboy-and-Indian picture, but it turned out to be mostly torrid love scenes. As the embraces became more impassioned the father became more concerned—until in the midst of one his son poked him and whispered: "Hey, Dad, did you see the muscle on that guy when he squeezed her?" —Reader's Digest.

LAST ONE HOME WASHES DIRTY DISHES

Driving through a sleepy little Sussex (England) village one evening our headlights suddenly picked out the figure of a woman—running for all she was worth down the road. Close behind her followed a man who appeared to be gaining at every step.

"We screamed to a halt and, leaving out, I asked the woman if I could be of assistance. "Oh, no, thanks," she panted. "My husband and I always race home like this from the cinema. Last one in does the supper dishes."—Reader's Digest.

THE ANIMAL IN HIM

"I'm afraid I can't help you," I said to the man injured in a car accident. "I'm a veterinarian."

"You're just the man," moaned the victim. "I was a jackass to think I could do 70 on those old tires."—Reader's Digest.

OHIO TOMATOES

Ohio produces nearly half the Nation's greenhouse tomatoes, says the National Geographic Society. The Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station at Wooster developed a wilt-resistant variety, called Ohio W-R Globe.

COPPER
Dwindling stocks of copper, as a result of strikes and increasing civilian consumption, may force the Office of Defense Mobilization to revive emergency powers to establish priorities.

WORLD POPULATION
The world population passed the 2,528,000,000-mark in 1954, according to statisticians of the United Nations. By mid-1954, the world had crossed the 2,500,000,000 mark and showed a 36,000,000 increase from the mid-1953 total.
