Cool in Northwest Say Touring Lanes

WEeping WATER (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Lane returned last week from the west after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Max Richards of Portland, Ore., a sister of Mr. Lane. While there they drove to Mt. Ranier seeing the snow 10 feet deep at the hotel and lodge. To enter either place they had tunneled a door way through the snow.

In Eugene they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Flesman (a sister of Mrs. Lane); Mr. and Mrs. Fredward Linville and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lundberg.

In Roseburg, Mr. Lane visited his cousin, Mrs. Bonnie Fitzpatrick Trobaugh, and her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Flesman and Mr. and Mrs. Lane then took a trip by car from Eugene to Seattle, Wash., to visit their brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Chappell. Leaving there, they went to Vancouver, taking long drives and visiting all the places of interest. In North Vancouver they took the lake drive and went up to the chair lift and the British properties.

Going by the way of boat they went to Nanaimo and then drove along the water to Victoria visiting places of interest, including the Parliament Building, the Empress Hotel, and the Buhart Gardens. While there they heard the Canadian Navy Band play the Drum Corps march and the ceremony of lowering the flag.

The weather in Oregon and Washington was cool. In the mornings it was around 48.

Barbara Reddington, Burton Gleason Married In Missouri

Mrs. Burton Gleason

Baskets of white and pink gladioli, and lighted tapers decorated the Raytown Christian Church at Raytown, Mo., on Saturday, July 23, for the eight o'clock, in the evening candle light marriage ceremony of Miss Barbara C. Reddington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Reddington, Sr., of Kansas City, Mo., and Ensign Burton J. Gleason, of Plattsmouth.

Rev. Paul Ehlly, performed the rites in the presence of 175 relatives and friends.

Organist was Mrs. Jeanehe Mereness, and soloist was Mrs. Eileen Pippenger.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of gossamer, mistis of Chantilly lace and tulle. The bodice featured a square neckline, dusted with ice-tinted sequins and extending into long lace sleeves in traditional manner. The skirt flowed into a chapel sweep of lace featuring alternating panels of lace and tulle. Her illusion veil of net was held with a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a pink orchid on a Bible.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Edwin R. Reddington, Jr., of Chicago, and the bridesmaid, Miss Sharon Springer, of Laurence, Kan., wore identical gowns of rose organza over taffeta, and rose velvet headpieces. They carried colonial bouquets of pink roses.

Debra Ann Charlton of York, was flower girl and Kay Charlton of York, ring bearer. Both were dressed in rose organza over taffeta.

Edwin R. Reddington, of Chicago, brother of the bride, served as best man. Ushers were William Grant, of Mission, Kan., and James Fisk, of Greenfield, Iowa.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony, with Mrs. John Michaels, of Kansas City, and Mrs. V. C. Springer, of Laurence, Kan., as hostesses.

Mrs. Gleason attended Iowa State College at Ames and was affiliated with Alpha Gamma Delta social sorority.

Ensign Gleason, also attended Iowa State College, and was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega, social fraternity.

Ensign and Mrs. Burton Gleason left for a wedding trip to San Francisco, Calif., and will be at home August 7 at Pensacola, Fla.

For traveling the bride wore a pink pleated daron dress with white accessories, and a pink orchid corsage.
