Church and Sunday school.

Second Wednesday each month.
Wednesday evening services 8 p.m.
God's inexhaustible goodness and abundance will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul" which will be read in Christian Science churches on Sunday.
Bible passages will include the admonition of Christ Jesus with regard to man's sustenance: "And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. For all these things do the nations of the world seek after; and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things. But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you." (Luke 12:29-31).

Also emphasizing the importance of looking to Soul, God, rather than to mammon for happiness, a correlative passage to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, states (60:29-31): "Soul has infinite resources with which to bless mankind, and happiness would be more readily attained and would be more secure in our keeping, if sought in Soul."

Bible Comment: Bible's Riches Can't Be Tallied In Money Values

KNOWLEDGE of the Bible recently brought a woman nationwide renown and over $30,000 in cash for her successful efforts to answer Biblical questions as a participant on a television quiz program.

The large sum of money won is what seems to have caught the national fancy, and the real riches possessed by the woman have been largely forgotten by the public.

For years a student of the Bible, she has walked daily in the treasure vaults of the ages. As she has turned the pages of the most beloved Book of all time, the treasures of civilizations, the wealth of empire have been spread before her eyes.

More important than these things are the treasures of the human spirit to which she has had access. The will, the fortitude, the desire to triumph over evil; the courage in time of adversity; the long, grim fight upward from bondage of sin into the light of the good life—these riches have been hers to enjoy over the years.

The most valued treasure of all which has been hers for so long is the key to eternal life which her Bible contains. The precious record of the life of Jesus—the story of He who came to die that man might live—this is the jewel without price which is in the treasury to which she has the key. The treasury whose bounty we may all enjoy if we but turn to the Books of the Bible.

This woman's knowledge of the Bible is the precious coin of another realm—the treasure of eternity—in which so many of us today must be rated as paupers.

FOREIGN AID
Congress recently completed action on a compromise $2,703,341,705 foreign aid bill, which was about $560,000,000 short of the amount the Administration had asked to carry the aid program through the 1956 fiscal year. However, because the Pentagon was able to "find" $302,000,000 in funds appropriated but unobligated, that had been "lost" in official book-keeping, it will be possible to recapture most of the $402,000,000 cut the House had made in direct military assistance.
