

Storm in Tuscon

Robert Sand left Thursday morning for Tuscon, Ariz., after receiving word that a storm had badly damaged the home of his fiancée's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rosalio Ronquillo on Wednesday. A roof was ripped from the portico, blew over the house and took part of the main roof with it, then crashed down and ripped off the terrace roof. The roofs then crashed on a new carport and destroyed the car inside. The inside of the house, clothing and furnishings were damaged by the heavy rains. Wind blew up to 76 miles an hour. They have had daily rains in Tuscon. The wedding of Miss Dolores Ronquillo and Robert Sand will be September fifth at Tuscon.
