

Betty Lemon, Richard March Married in Murray Ceremony

Mrs. Richard March

Miss Betty Lemon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lemon, and Ronald A. March, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick March, were married Saturday, Aug. 27, at Murray Christian church.

The Rev. Robert E. Larson performed the double ring ceremony at 2 p. m.

Nancy Lancaster, vocalist, was accompanied by Janice Lancaster at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a chapel-length gown of imported hand-clipped chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin. The fitted bodice was styled with a V neck and small Queen Anne collar.

The long sleeves tapered to deep points at the wrist. The bouffant skirt of lace had a deep flounce of tulle that ended in a slight Chapel train. Her fingertip veil of imported French illusion fell into a circular sweep from a lace half hat trimmed with pearls. She carried a white orchid on a white ribbon.

Mrs. Glen Walton, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore an orchid gown with a fitted bodice featuring lace and net over taffeta. She carried a colonial bouquet.

Gowned identical to the honor attendant were the bridesmaids, Mrs. Ed Tomsu, in green, and Miss Dorothy Myers, in yellow. They also carried colonial bouquets.

Mr. Donald March, twin brother of the groom, was best man. LeRoy Purry and Richard March, brothers of the groom, ushered, James Lemon and Bernard Lemon, brothers of the bride, were attendants.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lemon wore a lavender dress with black accessories. The groom's mother wore a dress of aqua lace with white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of yellow carnations.

The reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to Colorado Springs, the couple will reside in Plattsmouth.

Fairview Women's Club Provides Box New Hospital Items

The Fairview Womens Club has sent a box of new clothing to the University hospital in Omaha for use by needy patients, the university of Nebraska college of medicine has announced.

The University Hospital Service League had pre-cut the materials and sewed the garments as a club project. In this way they made a double contribution.

Mrs. Enno Ahrens reported that 30 baby quilts had been sent.

The University Hospital Service League encourages this type of sewing project to provide robes and gowns for the teen-aged and adult patients during their stay in the hospital. University Hospital itself does not have funds to provide these gifts of clothing so important in brightening the routine hospital day.

The Hospital League is a group of volunteers who work very closely with the hospital staff in distributing these donations of new materials. Through the efforts of clubs like this one, the League makes sure no needy newborn baby goes home without a complete layette. Colorful pajamas and well fitting underclothes make young children feel better while in the hospital, for they find it difficult to be comfortable in the standard hospital gowns.

The Fairview Womens Club is one of the many clubs throughout the state who are performing this welfare task as one of the community service activities for the year.

Mary Jo Lohnes Weds

Mrs. Jack Todd

Baskets of yellow gladioli and white pom poms appointed the chancel of the St. John's Catholic church for the wedding of Miss Mary Jo Lohnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lohnes, Plattsmouth, and Jack Todd, son of Mr. L. B. Todd, Murray, which took place Saturday morning, August 27, 1955. Father Raphael Chonta solemnized the double ring ten o'clock ceremony.

Organist Sister Annalita played the wedding music and accompanied Mr. John Jacobs of Omaha, who sang "Ave Maria" and "Mother at your feet kneeling" and "Pani's Angelicus." Wearing identical frocks of chiffon, featuring a scooped neckline, in the ballerina length were the maid of honor, Miss Margaret Eiting, in mint green, and the bridesmaids, Miss Joyce Fauquet and Miss Barbara Alkire in maize. Each carried a colonial bouquet of yellow gladioli.

John Blotzer cousin of the groom, of Murray served Mr. Todd as best man, and the ushers were Loren Todd, brother of the groom and Marion Tritsch, both of Murray.

Flower girl was Mary Lou Christensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Christensen of Mason City, Ia., and cousin of the bride. She wore a yellow dress and carried a basket of yellow petals.

The bride's mother was attired in an aqua linen dress with white accessories, and Mrs. Todd wore a white dress with pink duster with white accessories. White carnation corsages accented their costumes.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and appeared in a gown of white chiffon, an original by Gaston Mallet. Alencon lace finished the scooped neckline and short puffed sleeves, and formed a wide cummerbund for the tiny waistline. The skirt was fabulously full and fell into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil was caught with a half hat of lace. She carried a white orchid and steffianis on a prayer book.

A reception for 200 guests was held at the Lion's club following the ceremony. Mrs. Robert Wohlfarth, Sioux Falls, So. Dakota, cousin of the bride presided at the guest book; Mrs. Norman Moyer of Omaha, cousin of the bride, was at the gift table assisted by Miss Norma Champbell, Plattsmouth, and Marilee Dasher, Glenwood, Ia., cousin of the bride.

The couple are graduates of Plattsmouth high school; Mrs. Todd attended Doane college at Crete. Mr. Todd is a student at the University of Nebraska and is affiliated with Sigma Chi Fraternity.

After a wedding trip to the Black Hills and Yellowstone National Park, Mr. and Mrs. Todd will be at home at 3432 Mohawk Street, Lincoln, Nebr.
