New Look

Feldhausen Drug has now completed the job of installing new floor covering. It looks very nice and was applied during the two evenings they were closed last week.

Easy Does It—

Grove Jewelry has begun the process of moving. The lads from Plattsmouth Transfer are busy loading the glass show cases into the semi, and transporting them to the new location in the Masonic Building. The interior of the store has all been freshly redecorated and all of the new display cases and shelving has been made by Lyle. He has a woodworking hobby and a complete set of power tools.

Re-opens Restaurant—

Lou Beadleston has leased the restaurant on south sixth street from Phil Haldiman. She will operate under the name of Lou's Cafe, and is now open for business.

Celebrating—

Bill Swatek is celebrating his 40th anniversary in business this week. According to statistics, any business that survives more than 20 years is doing very good, so Swatek is really botting a thousand.

Take it Easy—

School has started and the children are once again crossing the street and highways. Police Chief John Hobscheidt had the school crossing lights in operation last week. It will take a few days for the local motorists to get accustomed to stopping at the avenue signs.

Life of Riley—

Betty Sell of the Style Shop is enjoying a vacation. Norman Ruback of the store of the same name has gone to Canada on a fishing trip. Henry Hild stocked up on film from Chris-wisners and took off for the Iowa State Fair.

Publish Early—

Next Monday's Journal will be published on Saturday because of the Labor Day weekend. All advertising should be in Friday noon for that edition. Your cooperation is always appreciated.

New Body Man—

Mr. Lee Kussman is the new body and fender man at Wyssel auto. He comes to our community from Auburn. His wife will teach at the Jean School, near Plattsmouth, this year.

Rev. George Smith Will Move to Omaha After Next Sunday

About 50 persons from the Plattsmouth Community Church gathered for a farewell fellowship at the home of Rev. and Mrs. George Smith last Tuesday evening.

The Smiths, who are transferring to Omaha after four years of ministry in Plattsmouth, were presented with gifts, a food shower, and a generous cash offering.

"Ten more years in Plattsmouth would have suited me just fine," commented the retiring pastor, "for in all my ministry I have never had the privilege of ministering to a more cooperative and receptive congregation and we have made many friends in Plattsmouth whom we have come to appreciate very much. It has been a real challenge and a delight to be a minister of the Gospel in this city." Rev. Smith will preach his farewell sermons next Sunday, exactly four years from the time he preached his first sermon here. His successor at the Plattsmouth Community church has not been named. Subscribe to The Journal Now!

Merit Exams Will Be Given in State For Various Jobs

Persons interested in a number of state jobs will be given an opportunity to qualify for such employment by taking Merit System examinations on September 24. Examination centers will be established throughout the State wherever there are enough interested persons in the area to justify such a center.

These examinations will be given for positions in the three State Departments of Health, Public Welfare and Employment Security. Many of the positions will be in county welfare offices, state employment offices and local health departments. Most of the positions will be clerical such as typists and stenographers. Others will be technical and professional positions such as Case Worker and County Director in Public Welfare; Interviewers in Employment Offices and Nurses, X-Ray Technicians, Sanitarians and Laboratory Technicians in Health Departments.

Several of those who will take the examinations on Sept. 24 will be provisional employees who have been appointed provisionally until they can be fully qualified by examination. It is expected that many will be interested in taking examinations for positions which they anticipate will be vacant at some future date. Examinations are given on Wednesdays of each week in the Merit System Office for all applicants who find it convenient to take the examinations in Lincoln.

Those interested in these positions should contact their nearest State Employment Office, County Welfare Office or local Health Department for more detailed information. Complete information may be secured by writing to the Merit System Office, 1306 State Capitol, Lincoln 9, Nebraska.

2ND SALK SHOT

WASHINGTON—More than 1,000,000 youngsters have received their second Salk polio vaccine shots, with the South leading the way. All told, 6,500,000 first and second graders received a first shot and around 60 to 70 per cent of those children able to get a second shot have had it. A nation-wide survey showed the number of polio fatalities has dropped 46 per cent below last year's level. In the key states supplying second shots, the decline has been 65 per cent.

INSECTS ON FARMS

Destructive insects are building up their numbers on the farms of the country. Boll weevils are increasing in the maturing cotton fields of the Southland, while grasshopper populations are becoming heavier in several states west of the Mississippi, according to the Department of Agriculture. European corn-borers are being seen in the corn-growing states. Other pests such as the alfalfa weevil at the big wax scale are proving injurious to these crops.

Federal authorities, in a series of raids, arrested eleven men and broke up what they called one of the country's major narcotics rings.

FARMERS-- CAN YOU FACE THE FUTURE WITH CONFIDENCE ?

Again this year, as in 1954, drouth conditions have robbed farmers in this area of an adequate corn crop. When water was needed to assure farmers of a bumper crop, there was none. No rain fell and in most instances crop yield estimates fell, too. Total loss was reported by many.

pared for it? Be equipped to give your crops water WHEN they need it through irrigation. Water can mean the difference between a bright future or one of disaster. You can insure your future NOW by investigating the possibilities of irrigating your land next year. By so doing, you can face the future with confidence.
