Greenrod-Gude Wedding Rites Nebraska City

AVOCA (Special) — White carnations appointed St. Mary's Catholic Church in Nebraska City Saturday morning, Sept. 10, for the marriage of Miss Clara Lou Greenrod and Donald E. Gude, both of Nebraska City. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greenrod and of the groom Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gude also of Nebraska City.

Rev. Richard Steineman read the nuptial high mass. Miss Jackie Greenrod, niece of the bride, was soloist accompanied by Sister Francesca. The chantly lace bodice of the bride's gown was fashioned with a narrow Peter Pan collar and long lace sleeves. Chantilly lace insets accented the skirt of net over satin. A Juliet cap held her finger tip veil in place. She carried a prayer book topped with pink roses. Miss Roper with white carnations centered the bride's bouquet.

The groom was matron of honor and Miss Marylee Dunlap, bridesmaids. They were identically gowned in ballerina-length frocks of dusty rose satin. Jackets of dusty rose net over satin topped the strapless bodices. They wore head dresses of net and white rosebuds and carried white carnations.

The flower girl was Lanna Greenrod, niece of the bride. She wore a floorlength white organza frock and a net head dress. Robert Hohman cousin of the groom was ringbearer.

Herbert Gude was his brother's best man and Rod Tourville, groomsmen.

Ushering were Richard Greenrod, brother of the bride, and Norman Ehmke, brother-in-law of the groom. A dinner and reception were held in the church hall with Mrs. Richard Greenrod and Mrs. Herbert Gude assisting. Mrs. Norman Ehmke, sister of the groom, had the guest book. At the gift table was Mrs. Ray McLeod and Mrs. Robert Ruhge. The couple left on a wedding trip to Denver after Sept. 15 they will be at home at 206 1/2 South Seventh St., Nebraska City.

Both the bride and groom are employed at the Avoca foods. She is a graduate of Nebraska City High in 1950. The groom graduated in 1947 from St. Bernard's Academy and spent four years in the Navy.

The bride is well known in Avoca having made her home here south of Avoca until moving to Nebraska City.

Tenor Soloist Will Present Concert Here

George Matthews, tenor vocal soloist, will present a sacred concert in The First Methodist Church of Plattsmouth Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Mr. Matthews is regarded by both music lovers and critics alike as one of the most interesting singers on the scene today.

George Matthews

His career is different in that he combines musical art with the important task of helping to develop fellowship and understanding between people through his concerts. Often his programs are made up entirely of songs that contain lessons in friendship, brotherhood, and faith in God. He never overlooks towns and cities because of size.

Mr. Matthews was born in North Carolina and received his musical training at the Detroit Institute of Musical Art, and the Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N. Y. He has been soloist with the world famous Fish University Jubilee Singers. He also appeared as soloist at the disbanding of the Grand Army of the Republic of the State of New York and as soloist at other important occasions. He won the $500 first prize in the National Audition in Chicago.

No admission will be charged. A free will offering will be taken.
