

Shirley Hild Reports On Girls State at Auxiliary Meeting

Report of girls state representative marked the meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary Thursday night in the lounge room of the 40 and 8 club. Mrs. Vera Wurga, president conducted the business session with a good attendance of the membership present. Shirley Hild, who attended girls state at Lincoln in July, related in a very interesting manner the high lights of the activities pertaining to government, conducted during the session, and of the social program held.

The president thanked the members who assisted with the decorating of the Legion and Auxiliary float that won second prize in the Merchants and G. I. parade during the King Korn Carnival. The Sgt. At Arms, and color bearer, participated in the parade.

In the reports of committees, Mrs. Helen Vroman, membership chairman, reported the drive would be completed by the October meeting. Other reports were given by Mrs. Verna Perry, scrap book Mrs. Helen Woolcott, child welfare chairman, Sophia Wolever, publicity, and Junior Auxiliary.

The group voted to order 4,000 poppies for poppy day. Mrs. W. C. Maston is poppy chairman. Mrs. Margaret Fitch, secretary read communications, which included a Christmas assignment for the Veterans and their families, to be contributed by the Auxiliaries, and presented to the gift shop at the Veterans hospital.

Auxiliary members, adopted the Junior Auxiliary members as their younger sisters, by names being drawn in the selection of their sister.

Mrs. Helen Woolcott, expressed her appreciation to the unit for their cards and gift sent to her while she was hospitalized.

Year books were presented members who were in attendance at the meeting, discussion held on party for Veterans day, with plans to be completed at the October meeting.

Yvonne Nelson, sponsored by the Auxiliary as a candidate for K. Korn Carnival queen sent her thanks for being selected. Miss Nelson served as a princess at the Koronation.

In the roll call of officers all were present but one.

Meeting adjourned with the retiring of the colors. Hostesses Mrs. Milton Muncie, Mrs. Clarence Akeson, Mrs. Max Vallery, Mrs. Roy Tschirren, Miss Ruth Patton, Mrs. La Vetta Baumgart and Mrs. Taylor Cuthrell, served sandwiches and coffee.
