A LUCKY MOVE
Portsmouth, Va. — W. C. Vaughan walked from behind counter in his market just as something which sounded like a pistol shot caused him to duck. An 18-inch piece of metal, believed to be part of an aerial from a plane, crashed through a 2-inch asphalt roof and fell just where Vaughn had stood.

France has told Moroccan leaders that her aim in troubled Morocco is to establish a "free, sovereign state" that would be linked permanently to France by "interdependence."
