Camp Fire Leaders Elect Officers

Camp Fire Leaders Association met at the home of Mrs. J. Howard Davis on Tuesday, Oct. 10. Sixteen leaders, assistants and mothers were present.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The candy sale, which will be held in November and December, was discussed. Chocolates will be sold again this year. Leaders were reminded that the proceeds from the candy sale go for the upkeep of Camp Harriet Harding at Louisville, Neb.

The subject of a Dad-Daughters banquet was discussed. In previous years one large banquet was held in Omaha, but will be divided into smaller groups this year. The Plattsmouth Association will have its own banquet to be held on Monday, Nov. 14, with the Camp Fire mothers serving the dinner.

New Camp Fire and Bluebird leaders were asked to check the number of girls to be in her group so that they may be included in the Dad-daughter banquet.

Roll call of leaders was taken, 94 girls are now enrolled in Camp Fire and Bluebirds in the Plattsmouth-Murray area. Some of the girls, however, do not have leaders.

Election of officers was held. Marcia Davis was unanimously re-elected chairman. Evelyn Gansemer was elected vice-chairman and Martha McQuinn, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Born were honored at parties. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miller and Mrs. Margaret Miller of Gretna entertained at a farwell dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Don Born, Tuesday evening. Other guests included Mrs. Born's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miller of Fort Crook.

Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parnoff and Norma Jean of Silver City, Ia. were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Born at dinner in Omaha.

Also entertaining at a 4 o'clock Sunday dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gansemer. Other invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Klingner, Omaha and Lawrence Leonard.

Mr. and Mrs. Born and daughter, Ellen Kaye are moving to California October 18th and have been honored at several parties recently. They will be missed by a host of friends and neighbors.

Tom Livingston who is attending Texas A & M college was at home over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Livingston, returning Sunday.

Gets Award

Miss Lucille Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Meyer of Wabash, was given in marriage by her father to Don Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Fleming of Weeping Water, at a 2:30 p. m. double-ring ceremony on Sunday, Oct. 9 at the Immanuel Lutheran Church near Louisville with the Rev. Melvin Meyer officiating.

The bride wore a gown of white alecon lace and nylon tulle, fashioned with a fitted bodice and long sleeves. The graceful double tiered skirt of lace fell to floor length over net. A petite lace collar trimmed with pearls completed the trim of the gown.

Her double tiered veil of sheer illusion fell to fingertip length from a half hat of pearls and lace. She carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Melvin Beckford, sister of the bride, and bridesmaids were identically gowned in red strapless ballerina-length gowns of net over satin with a fitted bodice, covered with bolero of red lace. Their matching head pieces were styled by Mrs. Walter Lühring. They carried bouquets of white carnations. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Murphy, of Weeping Water and Miss Elida Matthes of Malcom.

Brenda Bickford, niece of the bride, served as flower girl. She wore a floor-length gown of white tulle and matching color hat. She carried a basket of pink rose petals.

Eugene Lindsey, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer. Jamie Fleming, brother of the groom, served as best man. Brothers of the bride, Gene Meyer and Arvin Meyer, were the ushers.

Robert Miller sang "Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer" with Archie Crozier accompanying him.

A reception was held following the ceremony. Mrs. Kenneth Meyer had charge of the guest book.

Miss Lucille Meyer Is Married To Don Fleming at Louisville

The serving table was centered with a beautiful wedding cake of white with the bottom tier being scalloped. In each scallop was placed a red rose. Roses and sugar bells of white centered in silver, were placed about on the cake. The traditional bride and groom under the wedding bell topped the cake. The cake was placed on a lazy Susan and was edged with white net and red roses. Red and white candles and bouquets of fall flowers were placed on either side.

Mrs. Donald Meyer cut the cake and Mrs. Leon Meyer poured the coffee. Mrs. Chris Holt and Mrs. Walter Lühring were in charge of the kitchen with Mrs. Laurence Erhart, Mrs. Richard Keckler, Miss Jo Ann Meyer and Miss Janet Betts assisting. Mrs. Gene Lindsey, Mrs. Jim Cook, and Mrs. Jamie Fleming presided at the gift table.

The bride's mother wore a navy and white acetate dress with blue accessories. She wore a pink and white corsage.

The groom's mother wore a black wool suit flecked with raspberry, with black accessories. She wore a white corsage.

The bride's going away dress was brown and she had brown and white accessories.

After a short wedding trip the couple will live in Papillion.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meyer of Grand Island; Mr. and Mrs. Lorenze Roloff and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bryant of Omaha; Mrs. Florence Fleming and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ferris of Long Beach, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Granville Heebner and Dean and Ima Heebner of Nebraska City; Mr. and Mrs. James Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Patton of Lincoln; Roy Morrison of West Liberty, Iowa; Mrs. Ernest Skaack of Syracuse, and Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Wendt of Wakefield.
