Hog Prices Hit An 11-Year Low In Omaha Sales

Omaha Monday had biggest cattle and calf run in history of the market, an unofficial 42,500 head. Actually, it was cattle rather than calves that set the new mark. The cattle run alone exceeded 36,000. Previous largest cattle and calf run at Omaha was 42,073—set October 25th a year ago.

The Monday run at Omaha included more than a 24,000 Western replacement cattle and calves, most yet this season.

Trade on stockers and feeders was mostly steady to 25c-50c lower. Yearling stock steers ranged from $18 to $22; better yearling type fat cattle sold steady to 25c lower, others 25-50c off. Cows sold steady; canners and cutters $8.25-$9.50, with Western beef cows to $12.50.

A 20,000 hog run, biggest since first of the year, toppled butcher values another 50c, sows a quarter. Butchers weighing 180-270 broght $13-$13.25, 200 head $13.35 and $13.50, 160's down to $12.25. Those prices were a new 11-year low.

Fat lambs sold unevenly 50c lower to 25c higher, late trade shorn to $20.25.

Among recent sales at Omaha for shippers from Cass County were Howard Hellweg, 10 heifers, wt. 901, $20; Arthur Norris, 27 hogs, wt. 177, $14; Dwight Cook 37 hogs, wt. 199, $14; Dutch Rikil, 37 heifers, wt. 973 $20.75; Vernon Bornemeier 30 hogs, wt. 203, $14; Dutch Rikil, 24 steers, wt. 1136, $22; Emerson Wiles, 10 steers and heifers, wt. 926, $22.

The Air Force plans to spend $6-$7 billion on planes.
