HURT DEER CHASES MAN
FORSYTH, Mo. — Ernest Beeler, Kissee Mills, Mo., out deer-hunting shot an 8-point, 200-pound buck three times. Thinking the deer dead, Beeler ran up to slit the animal's throat, but the wounded buck staggered to his feet, and chased the hunter up a post oaksapling. When the buck lost interest, Beeler fired a fourth bullet into the animal, which started to run again. A fifth bullet finished it.

Enjoy a Thrilling Thanksgiving Family Reunion By Long Distance

The next best thing to attending a family reunion in person is a get-together by low-cost long distance telephone. You can be connected with different members of your family at different places on the same long distance call. Each can talk and be heard by the others.

This Thanksgiving, or the next time some special occasion like a birthday or anniversary comes up, why not plan a family reunion by telephone if you can't make it in person.

A family reunion by telephone is a thrilling experience—and it's easy to arrange. Just call Long Distance and ask for the Conference Operator—she'll be glad to take care of all the details.
