EAGLE

Mrs. John Fischer Correspondent

Miss Cape to Wed

Miss Carolyn Cape of Lincoln, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cape of Norfolk, will be married in March to A-2/c Douglas French of Flint, Mich. Eagle folks will remember Miss Cape's mother, Lois Lean, of Elmwood, teacher in Eagle schools in 1926 and 1927 in the elementary grades. The bride-to-be is a student nurse at Lincoln General hospital school of nursing.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Bird and neighbor, Don Halvorsen, left Friday for a trip to California. Mr. and Mrs. Silas Cantley attended the funeral services for Robert Lageman at Cook last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Fischer and Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Schwegman left Wednesday for a visit with relatives in California during the Christmas and New Year's holiday. The Schwegman's will remain for a more extensive visit with both son and a daughter and their families. The Fischer's will visit their daughter, Wilma, the Dan Lazier family for three or four weeks.

O. S. C. Plans Party

OSC club members planned a turkey dinner and Christmas party with an exchange of gifts for their families, at the American Legion hall in Palmyra on Thursday noon, Dec. 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wenzel attended funeral services at Lincoln last Thursday for Albert Kendle, father of Ester Kendle. He operated a service station here several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Meyers bought a property at Greenwood recently and were there on last Thursday getting it in readiness for renting. David Schmidt, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Schmidt, took ill last Friday with a throat and lung infection. The doctor was called and at this time is some improved at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Carrie Schmidt.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wenzel are looking forward to this weekend of Dec. 15 when their daughter, Helen, will be home from college at Nevada, Mo., for a visit with her parents and brother, Richard, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wenzel.

Mrs. A. H. Slekman received word that her cousin, Ernest Horne had died in Portland, Ore., where he and his wife moved from Lincoln a couple of years ago after retiring as a station operator at Lincoln.

John Meyers was ill last week with a kidney infection, causing high fever and considerable pain, but is much improved.

Mrs. William Bohn had surgery one day last week and is slowly improving but will be at the Clarkson hospital in Omaha for several days.

Masonic Widows

A group of ladies, who have titled themselves "Masonic Widows," enjoyed a get-together at the H. D. Fischer home last Saturday evening while their husbands attended lodge at Elmwood. Those present were Mrs. A. F. Schwenker, Mrs. O. E. Underwood and Mrs. Pearl Adams. Mrs. O. E. Pitzer, who usually attends, was visiting in Iowa last weekend.

Mrs. Dwight Earl has an infected thumb which has caused her considerable pain for several days.

The "O" Street Homemaker project club will have a Christmas party at the home of Mr.

and Mrs. Jesse Westlake, Friday, Dec. 16.

The Camp Creek club members and families had a Christmas dinner and party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LaVelle Swarts last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Earl and Gary visited at the home of Mrs. Earl's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Denison, near Cheney last Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. Edwards returned to her home in Alvo Monday. Mrs. Fifer will again assist in her care.

The Methodist education committee met on Wednesday evening at the parsonage. Annabelle Althouse is chairman, Laura Lanning, treasurer; Luella Fischer, secretary; Howard Root and Olive Westlake, junior and senior superintendents.

Christmas Trees

A Christmas tree has been placed in the town square by Howard Root and Johnny Sybrandt, members of the town board. The large tree was donated by Robert Walker. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Koutsky are giving a tree for the Methodist church Christmas services.

Cattle Association Plans Spring Show

The Old Reliable Hereford Association plans a big spring event, included in the program will be a 4-H and F. F. A. judging contest, 4-H and F. F. A. steer show and an open steer show open to the world along with the Polled and Horned Registered Hereford Show and Sale.

These events will be held Feb. 1 through Feb. 3, 1956, at Fonner Park in Grand Island. Entry fee in the steer show is $5 per animal. Plans call for the steer show to be held Feb. 1 followed in the evening by the steer sale.

Entry in the Polled and Horned Hereford breeding classes is open to members of the Old Reliable Hereford Association and must meet Standard Show Classifications. Any breeder in the State desiring to enter cattle in the sale will contact R. Clare Clement, Ord.

Entries for the show and sale are due Dec. 23 and may be sent to R. Clare Clement of Ord.
