Methodist Program
The choir of the Methodist church presented a program at the church last Friday evening consisting of the singing of Christmas carols of different countries. A group of five of the choir sang several numbers. They were dressed in old-fashioned costumes and sang under an unusual "lamp post." Carol Attebery and Carol Ann Pike sang solo parts. The choir were Ruth Stine, Shirley Turner, Carol Ann Pike, Virginia Balfour, Karen Wilchusen, Carol Attebery, Jones, Janice Mead, Myrna Wolfe, Judy Surface, Betty True, and Robert Attebery.

Women's Society of Christian Service held a Christmas luncheon at the church last Thursday afternoon. The tables were decorated with Christmas candles, snowmen and pine boughs. Twenty-five ladies and the Rev. Erwin A. Kiel lined up for the dinner. After dinner, a program was as follows: little Cathy Stine sang a solo; Iola and Irene Rich and Bobby Harrah played "Star of Hope." Mrs. Todd conducted devotions using "The First Christmas" story and "My Favorite Christmas Story." A number of Christmas carols were sung with Mrs. Snodgrass as accompanist. A short period was spent with several ladies telling some of their favorite Christmas experiences. The program committee were Phyllis Ackley, Elinor Maugey, Myrtle Christensen and Gussie Clarence. The hostesses were Mrs. John Hausen, Mrs. John Ervin, and Mrs. Martha Emilie. A nice Christmas donation of food was given the pastor; the Rev. Kiel and family.
