Hoffmans Sell

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffman have recently sold their farm to Mr. and Mrs. John Fox, who lives north of Memphis. Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman purchased the farm and moved there from Ashland in March, 1908, and have lived there continuously until the last month. Because of Mrs. Hoffman's poor health, they went to the home of their niece, Mrs. L. F. Johnson in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman have purchased a residence in town from Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Raikes, the place having been the home of the late Mr. and Mrs. Phil Folsom.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman will take possession about the first of March. Their two sons, Hugo and Carl, came from Long Beach, Calif., and are working at the farm making preparation for the moving. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sindt of Naponee have also been here helping Lucille with packing and moving.

Woman's Club

The South Ashland Woman's Club family night was held Wednesday evening, Jan. 25, at the Legion Hall in Ashland. The program committee, composed of Mrs. Mable Bachman, Mrs. Alecie Keelle and Mrs. Blanche Moore, prepared a home talent program.

Group singing was led by Mrs. Myrtle Sowards with Mrs. Marie Richards at the piano. Roy Keller played his violin, accompanied by Mrs. Keller. Marsha Mason gave an accordion solo.

Mrs. Velma Bochman showed colored moving pictures of the Rose Parade, Black hills, and several rodeo scenes, also of the club ladies at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Fern Mansfield. The women took lunch of sandwiches and cake which was served by the lunch and hostess committee, who were Mrs. Mary Box, Mrs. Killian Stenberg and Mrs. Myrtle Sowards.

There were 15 members, 13 husbands and three sons present.

The Violet Hobby

We read and hear about people having hobbies. When we do, we think of folks that have retired, but farm folks have hobbies and collections, too, that are very interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Keller are two busy farm folk who have interesting hobbies. Mrs. Keller has violets, 185 to be exact, 125 of them are of the named varieties in the single, double, two-tones and variegated blossoms. Some of the named plants are Ruby bouquet, Navy bouquet, Purty frilled, and White lace. These are the double blossom plants. Some of the two tones and variegated kinds are Azure beauty, Dark beauty, and double rose and white. Others named are Victory, Honey bud, Pink puff, Confederate gray, White prince and Madonna.

Mrs. Keller also has White girl, Red girl and Pink girl. She likes the girl violets best. The leaves are centered with light spots and are wavy. One might think that many plants would make a lot of extra work but that is where Mr. Keller joins in the fun of having violets. Mr. Keller has made plant stands that revolve around a pipe, the shelves are made of plywood and vary in size from 8 to 26 inches in diameter. Mr. Keller has also made some unique stands that he calls violet trees. These have pipe branches of varying lengths that also revolve around the center upright pipe. Each branch has small pie pans welded on which makes a place for a violet plant.

All the pipes are covered with aluminum paint.

The revolving shelves and pipes makes watering much easier. Mrs. Keller waters her violets from both the top and the bottom.

Mr. Keller has made violet trees and stands for several friends, as well as for Mrs. Keller, 12 in all. Mrs. Keller says the violet hobby grows on one, making them want every new variety, and to try different methods to grow new plants.
