Honorary Membership Pins to Mrs. Farley and Mrs. McClusky

At the Feb. first meeting of the Women's Association of the First Presbyterian church, the Association paid special homage to two of the members, Mrs. H. G. McClusky and Mrs. George Farley, by presenting them with Honorary Membership Pins.

Mrs. Virgil Perry, past president of Nebraska City Presbyterian Society made the presentation as follows:

"The story behind the awards for today began back in 1875, when the Rev. Baird came from Brownsville Presbyterian church to serve as our pastor until his retirement in 1905.

"His children grew up in this church, and true to tradition, and as daughters of the manse, Mrs. Farley and Mrs. McClusky have been faithful to this church all their lives, serving many and varied capacities.

"By their constant and active interest in every part of the Church Program, Sunday School, Youth Work, Choir and Women's Work, and by their regular attendance at all services they have achieved a pattern which each of us could well endeavor to follow.

"Year in and year out never

The American Legion Auxiliary held their regular meeting Thursday, p.m. in the lounge of the 40 & 8 club rooms. It was decided in the business meeting to conduct an Americanism Essay Contest "What Americanism Means To Me" open to all junior and senior high school age pupils, with essay not to be more than 500 words.
