How greater intelligence and wisdom can be gained through scientific understanding of God, divine Mind, will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.
The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mind" will include the following selection from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (128:4-11): "The term Science, properly understood, refers only to the laws of God and to His government of the universe, inclusive of man. From this it follows that business men and cultured scholars have found that Christian Science enhances their endurance and mental powers, enlarges their perception of character, gives them acuteness and comprehensiveness and an ability to exceed their ordinary capacity."

Also emphasizing the divine source of wisdom is the Golden Text from the King James Version of the Bible (Proverbs 2:6): "The Lord giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding."

Bible Comment

We Need More Josephs Today

ARE the times and concerns of men and nations in God's hands and therefore beyond his own care and keeping in any sense whatsoever?
Hardly.
Joseph, in Old Testament history, believed that God had a plan and purpose, both for individuals and nations. But this did not mean that he subscribed to the belief that this meant that man, himself, had nothing to do. This did not mean it followed that he believed men and nations had no part or responsibility in God's plan.
Joseph worked with God, and with God's laws and forces in nature, and so must we. The world needs more planning, as well as greater production. Even when men lived close to the soil, as in Joseph's day, the danger of lean years made planning necessary. When no man such as Joseph was at hand to store the Lord's bounty, great numbers often starved.
If that were true then, how much more is planning necessary today, when millions live away from the soil, utterly dependent on the farmers and growers and distributors of food.
We have not solved all the problems, by far, in the effective handling of the world's food, as today's headlines testify.
Nevertheless, achievements that would at one time have been considered miraculous are today a matter of routine.
We owe a debt of gratitude to all who work and plan that we may eat and live.
But we need Josephs, and greater Josephs. And we shall have them when modern planners realize that consecration to God's purposes makes men great. And not until then.

Fancy Office
George Smith, local mens clothier, has redecorated his office. Modernistic drapes at the windows and a curtain in the doorway with cord tie backs—looks mighty fancy.

Mystery Contest
The contest in the Journal got off to a good start. We had many entries and soon will be able to announce the winners. We had entries from Omaha and the far west. Watch for the announcement of the results of the contest.

Women Drivers
Mrs. Henry Hild won the women's division of the driving contest at Sutes Farm Equipment. Her Prize was an electric fry pan. Henry made several trips but couldn't better his wife's mark. After all she owes it all to him — he taught her to drive to begin with.

Honest Man
The Rev. G. E. Seybold of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church, received a letter last week from a man he had nearly forgotten. Many years ago he loaned a book to a German preacher who was struggling to learn English. The letter explained that for years he had intended to return the book, but that in the course of time and moving, the book had become quite dilapidated. He enclosed a check for one dollar to pay for the book, the original cost of which was about 60 cents.

The Reverend is a well known magician and following his service for the guests at the Nebraska Masonic Home, he frequently illustrates portions of his sermon by magic tricks. His visits are eagerly anticipated by the residents, who appreciate a man who will spend a little of his time to bring happiness into the lives of others.

Scenes About Town
Charles Allen, former manager of the Plattsmouth Chamber of Commerce, was in town last week and this morning Charles Dean, also a former manager, was a visitor on Main Street. Local merchants are getting ready to fire the big guns in an all out dollar day promotion. Watch the Journal ads for the splendid bargains they will offer the buying public.

Recognized
K. P. Pence was given recognition this week by the Bankers Life company. A letter was sent out to policy holders. In its content the letter paid tribute to the amount of insurance he had established and to the protection the insurance afforded to its owners. A picture of Mr. Pence also appeared in the letter.

21 From Cass Are Students At Peru State

PERU — Twenty-one Cass County students are among the 480 students enrolled for on-campus instruction for the second semester at Peru State College, according to Registrar F. H. Larson. The figure represents nearly a 16 per cent increase over the second semester a year ago, when 414 were enrolled. Peak enrollment for the first semester was only one student more than for the current semester.

Of the 480 students receiving on-campus instruction at the College 423 are full-time students and 57 are special or evening class students. An additional 85 students are enrolled in correspondence course and 100 are enrolled in five off-campus study center courses.

Enrollment is made up of students from ten states, Alaska, Puerto Rico and Honduras. Veterans enrolled number 77 as compared with 47 a year ago.

Students include Harry Weichel, Alvo; Fred Clements, Elmwood; Robert Gess, Rodney Heim, Claude Johnson, Jerry Partridge, Richard Schoepner, Lounsville; Dewayne Noell, William Templemeyer, Murray; Merritt Dodson, Wayne Wiles, Nehawka; Patty Colby, Kenneth Johnson, Gail Peterson, Margaret Svoboda, Luella Weddel, Plattsmouth; Virginia Balfour, Donald Roddy, Union; Janet Christensen, William Everett, and James Fitzpatrick, Weeping Water.

4-H CLUB EVENTS!

The Nimble Stitches met at the home of Sandra Jameson on January 26. We took our material for our luncheon cloth and napkins and showed it.

Linda Engelkemier demonstrated making cocoa, Laraine Young, measuring liquid, Sheridan Jose, measuring sugar, Sandra Jameson measured flour.

Five members were present. We are to judge our luncheon cloths and also have our material for our dish towel at our next meeting, to be held at the home of Laraine Young on February 28.
