

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dorr Note Golden Wedding; 150 Attend

ELMWOOD (Special) — Sunday, Feb. 12, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dorr celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home in Elmwood with an open house from 2 to 4 p.m. Mrs. Dorr was the former Jessie McCrory. The couple was married on the farm of her parents, near Murdock, Feb. 14, 1906.

A total of 152 guests signed the guest book.

Decorations in the living room centered around the mantle with a spreading spray of yellow snapdragons tied with a large golden satin bow. At either end large sprays of golden yellow chrysanthemums, also tied with large bows of golden satin ribbon, completing the decor.

Two sons, Neal and Russell, received the guests in the reception hall and the bride and groom stood nearby in the living room.

The bride was dressed in her wedding dress of 50 years ago. It was a white china silk trimmed with chiffon ruffles around the shirred long sleeves and a high staved collar of real point lace. The skirt was full with rows of tucks near the bottom. Her slippers were white kid. Beside her stood the bridesmaid of 50 years ago, Mrs. Grace Tolhurst-Blessing. Both wore corsages of yellow rosebuds. The groom had a yellow rose boutonniere.

Their two sons, daughter and families were present to help them celebrate. They were Neal Dorr and wife, Margaret, daughters, Kathleen and Pat, and son, Tom, from Murdock; Daughter, Frances, and her husband T.J. Larson, their daughter, Colleen, and son, James, from Sheridan, Wyo.; Russell E. Dorr and wife Marjorie, and son, Donald and daughter, Elaine, from Falls City. Present were Mrs. Dorr's sisters, Mrs. Frank Buell and husband (she is the former Lela McCrory); Mrs. Oscar Allen, formerly Myrtle McCrory, and her husband, Oscar Allen, Omaha; Mrs. Verner Perry (formerly Verna McCrory) and her husband, Verner Perry, Big Springs; brother, Marion McCrory and wife, Ethel, their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reuter; I. C. McCrory, Murdock; daughter, Mrs. Clinton Jones, Ashland; and daughters, Mrs. Victor Thimman, Ashland, and Mr. and Mrs.

Lawrence Earls, Wabash; Wm. McCrory and wife, and daughters, Kathleen and Susanae, Mound City, Mo.

The serving table in the dining room was centered with a three tier wedding cake, decorated in gold with a "50" at the top. Serving were the sisters of the bride, Mrs. Frank Buell, Mrs. Oscar Allen, and Mrs. Verner Perry.

Guest book was presided over by Elaine Dorr, Colleen Larson and Kathleen Dorr, all grand-daughters of the couple. The gift table was in charge of Elaine Dorr and Susanae McCrory.

Yenney-Embury Rites at Presbyterian Church Feb. 5

Two hundred and fifty-two relatives and friends were present at a candlelight ceremony at the First Presbyterian church Sunday, Feb. 5 for the wedding of Barbara Marie Yenney, daughter of Mrs. Ernest Henry Yenney and the late Ernest Henry Yenney and Bobby Leah Embury, son of Mrs. A. D. McCune of Leavenworth, Kan., formerly of Plattsmouth, and the late Earl Embury.

Rev. Keith Delap performed the double ring ceremony. Miss Patricia Painter sang "I Love Thee", and "The Lords Prayer", accompanied by Mrs. George Jacobs.

Miss Yenney entered the church on the arm of her grandfather, Henry Yenney of Norfolk, who with her mother gave her in marriage. She was attired in a white bridal gown of nylon tulle designed on princess lines with front and back center panels of Imported French lace, V neck with iridescent beaded applique front and back. The skirt was enhanced with the beaded flower applique. The gown had a lined chapel train. Her veil was of double fingertip illusion nylon tulle, held by a double crown of iridescent beads. She wore a necklace, a gift of the groom. She carried a Colonial arrangement of tulle, Lily of the valley, centered with a lavender Orchid. Brocaded streamers fell from the corsage.

Miss Kay Redmond of Norfolk, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor; gowned in nylon tulle of mint green, floor length with a very bouffant skirt of ruffles. She wore matching hat and finger-tip gloves of nylon tulle. Her corsage was of colonial design with pink Roses and white Carnations with a background of tulle.

Miss Phyllis Tritsch of Plattsmouth and Miss Joan McNeil of Council Bluffs, Iowa served Miss Yenney as bridesmaids. They were gowned identical in shell pink nylon tulle with lace bodice and bolero. They wore matching hats and finger-tip gloves of nylon tulle. Corsages were colonial design of pink and white Carnations with a background of tulle.

Cynthia Begley, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Begley, served as flower girl, preceded the bride down the aisle. She wore a white ruffled bouffante skirt of nylon tulle; matching hat and finger-tip gloves completed her ensemble. She carried a colonial corsage of pink and white Carnations.

Frank Tuck of Kansas City, Mo., friend of the groom, was best man. Darrell Yenney, brother of the bride, and John Horn were groomsmen. Jerry Fulton and Joe Grauf, cousins of the groom, were ushers.

Walter Yenney, brother of the bride, and Roy Redmond of Norfolk, cousin of the bride, were candlelighters.

The bride's mother wore a gown of raspberry crystalet with lace inserts in the bodice and skirt, with mauve accessories. The groom's mother wore a gown of blue, with beaded neckline and matching accessories. Their corsages were of pink Roses and white Carnations.

Attending grandparents were Mrs. Henry Yenney of Norfolk, Mrs. M. B. Allen of Plattsmouth and Mrs. Niles Yarnell of Lincoln.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlors. A four tier decorated wedding cake, coffee, punch and pink and green mints were served. Miss Lynas Schwendemann assisted by Miss Mary Ellen Tritsch served the punch and mints; Mrs. George Smith poured coffee; Mrs. Bert Redmond of Norfolk, aunt of the bride, cut the cake; Mrs. Maynard Tritsch served the cake. Mrs. Wayne Gorton and Mrs. Dean Dunham served the bridal table.

Mrs. Robert Hirz had charge of the gift tables; Mrs. Bill Howland presided at the guest book.

Mrs. Embury was born in Norfolk, moving to Council Bluffs, Iowa, and then to Plattsmouth in 1950 when her father was Fire Chief at Offutt Air Base. She graduated in 1955 and since was employed in Omaha.

Mr. Embury was born in Omaha, lived most of his life in Plattsmouth, graduating with the class of 1952. He entered Findlay Engineering College, Kansas City, Mo., graduating in March, 1955 with a Bachelor of Science degree. Since then has been employed in Wichita, Kan.
