Letter Home

Loveland, Colo. Feb. 7, 1956

Dear Friends: Since it would be nearly impossible, to write to all of our friends, anxious to hear about our new home and Betty Jo, I will rely on Neva and The Journal for help.

We like Colorado just fine. The climate is just wonderful. We don't even notice the cold. The sun is extremely warm.

Betty Jo is like a different little girl. She hasn't coughed one night since we arrived here. She sleeps and eats like a different child. She is getting roses in her cheeks, and has gained from 58 lbs. to 67 pounds. We feel sure our move was not in vain.

We have bought a three-bedroom house and are finishing off two bedrooms in the basement. We are doing this in anticipation of much company from "back home" this summer.

Our address is 408 Grandview Drive, Loveland, Colo.

We will be happy for anyone coming to Colorado to stop and visit us.

Sincerely,
Pud and Edythe
Worhan

School Carnival Makes About $175

The Union School held a well attended carnival at the school house last Monday evening.

Various booths did a flourishing business. The "fish pond" was all sold out early in the evening and added a neat sum to the treasury. The "cake walk" sold fifteen cakes to the "lucky" persons who drew the right numbers. Later the main program of the evening was held in the assembly room. Mrs. Richard Schanot, chairman of the program committee, introduced Fred Clements, music instructor, who announced the musical numbers. The first, a trio, Betty True, Janis Mead and Myrna Wolfe, sang "Somewhere over the Rainbow". Edwin Wolfe accompanied them. Second number was presented by the junior high school. They were accompanied by Iola Rich.

Mr. Carey as (Garay Carey) then took part as an M. C. in conducting a panel "I've got a Secret" and introduced his product, "Carey Salt". His commercial was full of many laughs. He introduced his panel as Bill Cullen (Don Wolfe), Jane Meadows (Mrs. Don Wolfe), Henry Morganstine (George Stine), and Ruth Fae Emerson Stine (Ruth Stine). The first guest on the panel was George Stites. The panel were blind folded as the audience learned that Mr. Stites secret was "I played in the Union Band forty-five years ago." The next guest was Frank Anderson and his secret was "I am the oldest member of the Methodist church." Mrs. Howard Snodgrass was the third guest and her secret "I am wearing Nina Upton's wedding shoes" and the fourth guest was Mrs. Hollis Banning. Her secret was "Don Wolfe had a 'kid' while he was in high school." (Frank Anderson threw a picture on the screen showing Don with a kid on his back.) Each guest was presented a carton of Carey Salt by "Gary Carey".

Larry Cook announced the crowning of "the king and queen of hearts" next. Attendants at the ceremony were Karen Wilshusen and James Draper from the freshmen class. Betty True and Richard Schanot from the junior class; Nola Keene and Ted McClane from the senior class. The king and queen of hearts were Judy Surface and Arthur Jones from the sophomore class.

Gifts to the king and queen were presented by Allan Beckard.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ruth Stine, Mrs. George Lechner, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. George Comer and Mrs. Elmer Pike. About $175.00 was taken in from the carnival.

Invited guests were Mrs. Mabel Wolfe, Mrs. Betty Harrah, Mrs. Groves of Nebraska City; Mrs. Kathryn Harrah, Mrs. Myrtle Wolph of Avoca; Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. O. Lundberg, Mrs. Jack Lindsey, all of Nehawka; Mrs. Rich, Mrs. Carol Attebery and baby daughter and Mrs. Todd.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Attebery and family moved to Nehawka last Saturday where they will live in the George Sheldon property.
