Bess Streeter Aldrich Noted Author Is Honored by Club

At a Feb. 23 meeting of the Elmwood Community Kensington, held at the home of Miss Minnie Kunz, the program committee, Mrs. Ruth Monning, chairman, prepared a program to honor Bess Streeter Aldrich, Elmwood's own citizen. Events were related leading up to the proclamation of Gov. Victor Anderson, setting aside a Bess Streeter Aldrich Day, Feb. 27, her birth date.

Mrs. Earl Horton gave a resume of books and stories written by Mrs. Aldrich. When she first commenced to write stories she used the pen name, Margaret Dean Stephens. Some of her stories were printed in magazines of national circulation. Her books were written in her real name.

Mrs. Guy Clements gave her personal experience of the author as a neighbor and friend. They lived across the street from Mrs. Bess Streeter Aldrich. There were ten children on the corner. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Greene had four; Captain and Mrs. Aldrich had four, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Clements had two which made enough for amusements. She told of her friendly attitude and her devotion to her family. She shopped up town, brought her mail and carried on a heavy correspondence. Answering all of her fan mail, which was considerable.

Mrs. Gussie Jochens gave reminiscences of the home life of the Aldrich family, for whom she worked nearly 30 years.

Mrs. Blanche Kuehn reviewed a story written by Mrs. Aldrich of Memorial Day in Elmwood.

Mrs. Grace Plybon told about Mrs. Aldrich's activities in local club work.

Miss Minnie Kunz, president of the Kensington, conducted a business meeting. There were 35 present. Each was asked to relate some incident of their recollection about Mrs. Aldrich. All but about five present knew her personally. She moved from Elmwood about 15 years ago but still retained her membership in the Methodist church, where Dr. Cort of St. Paul's church conducted her funeral. Her burial was in the Elmwood cemetery. The family said at the time that it was her desire to be brought home for burial.

The Kensington had, as usual a covered dish meal after the meeting.

der and family, Decatur, Ill., were weekend guests of her mother and sister, Mrs. Blanche Kuehn and Alice. Mr. Schroeder is here to interview students in the electric engineering division of the University of Nebraska with a view of inducing them to locate in Decatur, Ill. He also expects to interview some students at Manhattan before returning home.
