Fairview Womens All Day Meeting

On March 8 at 10 o'clock the members of the Platts-mouth Fairview Womens' Club met at the home of Mrs. Louis Wagner for an all day meeting. The assistant hostesses were Mrs. John Terryberry and Mrs. Richard Livingston.

The noon meal was made up of the food in the lesson "Freezing Cooked and Prepared Foods". The lesson was given by Mrs. Albert Ulrich and Mrs. Richard Livingston. It consisted of the freezing of cooked and prepared foods, their packaging, different types of containers and the many possibilities of our home freezers.

Business meeting was opened with the song "When Irish Eyes are Smiling". Mrs. Eugene Meisinger, citizenship chairman, renewed the many historical events that have occurred during the month of March.

During the day the members stuffed the envelopes for the Crippled Children Drive. The drive for funds will be opened officially on March 10, 1956.

The layettes made by the club members are now ready to be delivered to the University Hospital of Omaha.

The annual bake sale will be held at the Hardware.

Next meeting will be with Mrs. Herman Hennings. Assistant hostesses will be Mrs. Oliver Meisinger and Mrs. Jake Tritsch. The date is April 12. Lesson to be "Accessories".

The afternoon was brought to a close with assistant hostesses serving a frozen angel food cake dessert.

Goldenrod Study Makes Donations

Goldenrod Study Club held its regular monthly meeting March 8 and voted to donate $5 to the Red Cross and $2 to the Diabetic Camp.

The Thursday meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Spangler in Murray with Mrs. Guy Wiles and Mrs. Chester Wiles assisting.

Mrs. James Cook, president, called the meeting to order, and group singing followed accompanied by Mrs. Roy Cole. Devotions were given by Mrs. Howard Wiles who used material from "Imitation of Christ." The Lord's prayer and club collect were repeated in unison.

Mrs. Chester Jacobs and Mrs. Roy Cole played a piano duet, and Mrs. Chester Wiles and Mrs. Charles Spangler sang a duet.

Business of the day was presented to the club. Mrs. Charles Spangler was announced as the club's representative in the "Mrs. America Contest." All members brought eggs which will be given as the annual contribution to the Nebraska Children's Home.

Mrs. Boyd Linder was introduced to the group and showed beautiful slides which she had taken while in Europe last summer. Many historic locations in England, Holland, Belgium, France, Germany, Switzerland, Austria and Italy were greatly enjoyed by all. Much interest was aroused by the slides.

Refreshments with a St. Patrick Day theme were served 25 members, 3 guests and 3 children.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Cassidy of Lynch visited Mrs. Cassidy's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker, Sr., Monday evening.

Mrs. LaVelle Swarts visited several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orcutt, at Derby, Colo., near Denver. She had received word that her father who has been ill for quite sometime, had become more critically ill.

Mrs. Dwight Earl accompanied a cousin, and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Buecher, of Denver to attend the wedding ceremony of the latter's son, Walter Buecher, and a Minnesota girl at Redwing on Thursday. They plan to be home Saturday.

Donald Wulf at Ralston attended the soil conservation meetings at Lincoln for three days last week. He was an overnight visitor at his parent's home, at night during the sessions.

Mrs. A. H. Siekman was an overnight visitor at the home of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Siekman, Thursday evening and remained with her daughter-in-law, while the latter's husband and Mrs. Siekman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Francke, attended a wedding ceremony of Jerry Porter, at Valparaiso. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Porter. Mrs. Porter is the former Marquerite Francke of Eagle.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berry and family of Peru visited at the home of their friends, Coach and Mrs. Floyd Gump and family, last Tuesday evening. On Sunday they visited at Glenwood, Iowa, and attended the baptismal services of the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Berry. Both Mr. and Mrs. Berry attend college at Peru.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Wulf went to Indio, Calif., by train from Kansas City, routed to El Paso, Texas, along the Mexican border to visit their daughter and family, the Rev. Paul Schmidt's.

Indio is situated in the Coachella valley, a beautiful place of Date Palms, grapefruit and tangerine trees. They also grow cotton plants. They reported, "While we were at Indio, they were having their annual Date Festival, which we attended."

"We had never seen camel races, so of course, was a thrill. The riders were dressed in Arabian Costumes. We went to Palm Springs and saw Bing Crosby's home and his Blue Skies Motel. The area about his home is police controlled, so persons can't drive too close. We were in Indio about ten days, there took the coast line trip to Walnut Creek, Calif., where we visited an aunt, Mrs. Mary Gerke. Walnut Creek is located just across the bay from San Francisco. We crossed the bay by ferry. We visited at Oakland and continued north through Feather-River Canyon, and saw the flood area. It took us four hours by train to go 120 miles. We saw hundreds of deer all along the way. On the route home, we came by Salt Lake City through the 6.2 miles long Moffat tunnel and Denver, Colo. to Lincoln.

Proclamation

WHEREAS: The American Legion will be 37 years old on March 15 to 17, 1956, and

WHEREAS: It has been dedicated from its birth to service for God and Country and has become a staunch bulwark of the American way of life through its leadership in all movements to preserve our free institutions, rights and freedoms, and

WHEREAS: It is and always has been a militant foe of all un-American activities and has through its tireless efforts been responsible for many security safeguards against infiltrating Communism,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Leo R. Meisinger, as Mayor of the City of Plattsmouth, do hereby proclaim the week of March 10 to 17, 1956, as AMERICAN LEGION BIRTHDAY WEEK and do call upon all citizens and all organizations to join in paying tribute to the good works of The American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary in its unselfish efforts in national security, Americanism, rehabilitation, child welfare, religious emphasis, citizenship training of youth and community services.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Seal of the City of Plattsmouth at the City Hall, this 12th day of March in the year of our Lord 1956.

(Signed) LEO R. MEISINGER,
Mayor
