

American Legion Post and Auxiliary Have Joint Party Noting 37th Anniversary

Hugh J. Kearns Post of the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary celebrated the 37th anniversary of the American Legion Friday evening, March 16 with a covered dish dinner at 6:30 in the 40 & 8 club. A large crowd attended the meeting.

The huge anniversary cake decorated in the Legion colors of blue and gold, with blue candles surrounding the cake served as the table centerpiece. The cake was cut by Post Commander Alva Linder and the auxiliary president, Mrs. Don Wurga. Commander Linder acted as master of ceremonies following the dinner. He introduced Past Commander C. E. Ledgway who read a list of Past Commanders who had served the post. Those present were asked for a few comments. Roy Holly, Past Commander called from his home in Lake Manawa, Iowa to send greetings and express his regrets in not being present.

Mrs. Donald Wurga, president of the auxiliary, was introduced and presented the past presidents of the auxiliary which was formed in 1921.

Mrs. Don Wurga was awarded the door prize.

Committee for the party was Lloyd Fitch, Orville Julian, Mrs. DeForest Perry, Mrs. Elsie McClintock and Mrs. LaVetta Baumgart.

Cards and dancing served as entertainment for the evening following the dinner.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Don Selvers, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Gayer and Mrs. Ralph Buchanan all of Omaha, and Mr. and Mrs. John Wickman of Lincoln. Mrs. Selvers and Mrs. Gayer are past auxiliary presidents and Mr. Gayer a post commander.

General Sillin Assigned New York

HQ. SAC, OMAHA, Neb. — Brig. Gen. Norman D. Sillin, comptroller of operations of the U.S. Air Force's Continental Air Command, SAC headquarters, announced today.

In his new position at Mitchell Air Force Base, N. Y., General Sillin will direct air operations and flying activity of the nation's Air Force reserve organizations. At SAC headquarters he has controlled the command's business and financial management activity.

The general, a command pilot and combat observer, has been with the Air Force since 1929, commanding the 11th Fighter Command in Alaska and the 309th Bomb Wing in the Pacific during World War II.

General and Mrs. Sillin, who lived at Quarters 12, Offutt Air Force Base, leave Sunday for Mitchell Air Force Base, where he will report for duty March 28.

SAC headquarters has not yet announced General Sillin's replacement.

School Bus Stop Violators Warned

Violators of the school bus stop law will find themselves in difficulty with his office if they are spotted, Cass County Sheriff Tom Solomon said today.

The sheriff said his office has received numerous complaints regarding motorists failing to observe and respect school buses stopped and in the process of picking up or unloading students on the highway.

A motorist should stop, when he sees a school bus has halted for loading or unloading, and remain stopped until the bus is in motion again, he said.

Condemnation Suit Is Filed Nehawka Road

Condemnation proceedings have been filed in Cass county court at Plattsmouth by the county against Frank Hogue and Rolland Hogue, on land the county has decided to use in improving a road from Highway No. 1 south to Nehawka.

The land is at the north edge of Nehawka where the road will curve to join Nehawka's Main street.

No appraisers have been appointed by the court to date.

The Nehawka North road became a hot issue recently when several leading citizens of the town called on the county commissioners at Plattsmouth requesting improvement of the gravel-surfaced road. Improvement of the road had been promised well over a year earlier but had not been made. The road is used for school bus travel by Murray and Nehawka buses.

Board of Commissioners Chairman Ray Norris told the Journal earlier that he had two landowners with whom to settle rights-of-way. Only one condemnation suit was filed.

Reason for new rights-of-way is a new entrance planned into Nehawka for the road.

Main Street

By Vern Waterman

New Look— Herman Tiekotter and his crew are rapidly transforming the old bakery into a modern office building. New store fronts are always a good boost for Main street moral.

Big Success— The official open house of Steve Davis in his new office at 112 No. 5th was a splendid affair. The floral decorations sent by businesses and friends gave it all the glamour of a Hollywood premier. The best deal was the little notebook where on you wrote your name and it was embossed on the book in gold foil. I was especially glad to get mine since I keep my Main Street notes in such a book and I was down to the last page.

Home Again— Vic Schreiner is home from a trip to Alliance. He had a fine time visiting his mother and his many friends in his old home town in the cow country. Now it's off with the Stetson hat and boots and back in the orange and blue jacket of a Rexall Druggist.

Gallant Gesture— The installation of the automatic door on the supermarkets have led to a revival of old fashioned gallantry on the part of some husbands. Now they step on the automatic release and presto the door opens for the little woman, who somewhat dazed marches through. In the past she has been known to field a belt in the kisser when the door closing behind her husband struck her unawares.

Passing Scene— The young mother who stood outside the door of Knorr's coaxing reluctant offspring to come on out. He remained obstinate all through threats to go and leave him. If I were once again a small boy, I can't think of a place I would rather be left than in a dime store. The psychology in this case would seem to be all wrong.

The Evelands report that all the way home they passed through country which was dry, and encountered some blowing dust in New Mexico. As has been the case in some former years, they returned to Elmwood to enjoy a snow, a Nebraska welcome mat.

UYF Meeting

United Youth Fellowship met for a business meeting Sunday evening at the Christian church. Only business was election of officers. Afterward, they went into the Church sanctuary for devotions and the two sacred films. They made plans for a sunrise breakfast at the Methodist church Easter morning, then to go carolling. New officers: Betty Nielsen, president; Joyce Miller, vice-president; David Godbey, re-elected secretary-treasurer; Bob Hall, program chairman; Iva Kay Irons, recreation chairman; Mardelle Miller, refreshment chairman.
