Know Your Candidate . . .

ROBERT WHELAN, FOR COUNCILMAN FIRST WARD.

Mr. Whelan, now holding the office of councilman from the first ward in Plattsmouth, was nominated by the Democratic caucus to run for the post to which he was appointed to serve out the term of the regularly elected councilman, Howard Hirz. He will be opposed by Roy Moore, on the Republican ticket.

Robert Whelan

Mr. Whelan was defeated in a race for a council seat last spring but was later appointed.

He was born on a farm north of Albert Lea, Minn., and attended school near his home. He sold this business in Auburn and sold that to return to Plattsmouth and be employed by a private electrical company at Offutt Air Force Base, his present work.

He is a member of St. John's church at Plattsmouth where he is on the building committee for the church's new school building.

He is a member of the Knights of Columbus and the Eagles Lodge.
