Proclamation

WHEREAS, we, the people of the City of Plattsmouth, now pursue our daily lives in peace and prosperity, despite the tensions created by those whose aim is our subjugation to the atheistic doctrine of communism, and

WHEREAS, it is possible to continue our peaceful pursuits because of the real and ready might of the long-range offensive arm of the United States Air Force, known as the Strategic Air Command and already proved in world affairs to be our strongest deterrent to enemy aggression, and

WHEREAS, this mighty force will observe the tenth anniversary of its activation as our power for peace in the Atomic Age on March 21, 1956, and

WHEREAS, we, with our entire nation, are even now looking back upon

A DECADE OF SECURITY THROUGH GLOBAL AIR POWER and confidently look forward to future decades of security maintained by this proved and present power, and

WHEREAS, our neighbors, the men of Offutt Air Force Base, are members of the strategic Air Command, and have in their daily work on our behalf helped to create the strength which makes our security possible,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Leo R. Meisinger, Mayor of the City of Plattsmouth, do proclaim the week of March 21-28, 1956, as a period in which to give thanks to God for the peace and security which we enjoy, and to recognize, in every fitting manner, our debt to the men of Offutt Air Force Base for their constant and dedicated contribution to the Global Air Power which stands between us and the ravages of a major war.

Done at the City of Plattsmouth, County of Cass, in the State of Nebraska.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be fixed the seal of the City of Plattsmouth, this 14th day of March, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred Fifty Six.
