Don't Frighten Your Husband In Your New Easter Suit

by MARGARET DINGMAN

You've got to be in slender* fit both the figure and the fashion it underlines.

A dress with a smooth midriff calls for an all-in-one, or a basque to give a long unbroken line.

Please ladies buy yourself one of these "all-in-ones" before you spring one of those short jacket suits with the pencil slim skirt, on your husband. I had to return my perfectly lovely Easter suit, because he said "You look like you are expecting"—I was expecting!—A compliment!—But even I knew better in my two-way stretch.

Two new members To Join Rebekahs

Rebekah Lodge met Monday evening, March 19 with Clara Olson, vice grand conducting the meeting in the absence of the noble grand.

Two new members were voted on to be initiated later. They are Mrs. Edith Haley and Mrs. Clara Jordan.

A collection of $5 was taken for the Polio Drive.

Hostesses Elva Aylor, Edith Akeson, Florence Coleman and June Aspedon served lunch.

Unusual detailing calls for a natural rounded bustline on the empire style dresses. Bateau necklines—with bold cuts of material dominate afternoon and evening dresses. Needless to say, knife pleated, or straight, the skirts are demanding on the figure.

Taking a close look at the fundamentals of all this narrow shaping, it's clear this is a lady look season. Understatement is the tone, and the key basic must

Union Am. Legion Auxiliary Gives $5 To Red Cross

The American Legion Auxiliary of Union met March 20 at the Legion Hall with twenty-four members present. The Unit voted to give $5 to the Red Cross.

Mrs. Harry Gobelman reported that the Girls' State application was accepted. Miss Betty Lou True, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey True was chosen to represent Union.

The Easter Egg hunt sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary and War Dads Auxiliary will be held March 31 at 2 o'clock on the Union School grounds. The hunt is held for pupils of pre-school age through the second grade of the Union community and also members of the Auxiliaries who have pupils in that group.

Mrs. Elsie Frans gave a report on community service. Mrs. Charles Attebery read a news article on the Legion's Birthday. The hymn of the month was sung.

The next meeting will be April 9.

Hostesses for the March meeting were Mrs. Robert Harrah, Jr., Mrs. Charles Crook and Mrs. June Hostetter.

Legion Auxiliary March Meeting

The home of Mary Ann Dingman was the scene Friday night of the meeting of the Junior Legion Auxiliary. Dottie Woster was a guest.

Business session was opened with the Junior Chairman, Valerie Gorton presiding. Colors were advanced by Sgt at Arms Mary Ann Dingman, and color bearer Carol Schreiner, followed by the pledge of allegiance to the flag, and prayer by Chaplain, Kathy Curtis. The National Anthem sung by the group and the preamble repeated in unison.

Due to the absence of secretary, Joyce McClanahan, Carol Schreiner was appointed secretary pro tem. Treasurer's report was given by Marcia Lagerstrom. Penny march was held.

Reports of committees were heard announcing the acknowledgement of the tray favors received at the Veterans hospital in Omaha, and cookies sent to an orphanage in Lincoln for Valentine day.

Plans were completed for a child welfare program, and initiation to be held in April, with guest speaker from the Legion Auxiliary. Members of the Legion Auxiliary big sisters and mothers of the Juniors will be guests.

Meeting adjourned and a social hour followed with a musical talent program presented by the group.

Mrs. Perry Dingman assisted by Mrs. Sophia Wolever, sponsors of the Juniors, served cake and a cold drink and easter egg candy to the members from a beautifully appointed serving table centered with a cake decorated in the Easter Motif with an inscription "The Junior American Legion Auxiliary."

The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sophia Wolever.

Children Learn Button Lore In Homemakers Nursery Class

How to button a button was one of the things the Plattsmouth high school homemaking class taught 14 Plattsmouth children in three weeks of nursery school under the direction of Miss Lynas Schwendemann, vocational homemaking instructor. Freshman, sophomore and senior homemaking classes completed the course.

Some of the projects completed were those of making a notebook, which offered to the children a chance to learn to button and unbutton buttons; how to tie a bow and to do simple sewing.

Other experiences in the notebook provided coloring improvement and how to paste. The children also did finger painting, made cookies and constructed an Easter chicken.

Last day of nursery school was celebrated by honoring the fourth birthday of Tommy Hansen. Besides cake and ice cream each child received an Easter basket.

Children, who attended the school, were Jim and Tom McKnight, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McKnight; Kathy Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson; Johnny Fischer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fischer; Beth McKenny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. McKenny; Cynthia Begley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Begley; Mike Adkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Adkins; Patsy Brink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Brink; Tom Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hansen; Paula Delap, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Keith Delap; Ronnie Hutchinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hutchinson; Cheryl Claus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Claus; Scott Keith, son of Captain and Mrs. James Keith, and Jeanne Keil, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Erwin Keil.
