Migratory Birds Are Discussed by Plattsmouth Club

The Plattsmouth Bird Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Luke Wiles.

The group discussed migratory birds common in this area with Mrs. Wiles giving a talk on swallows. Mrs. P. T. Heineman said.

She said the group meets at homes of the members during the winter months and takes field trips in the spring and fall. She urged anyone interested in bird life and habits and who would like to join the club to contact Mrs. Luke Wiles or Mrs. William Keeley.

Those attending the meeting were club officers, Mrs. William Keeley, president, Mrs. Luke Wiles, secretary-treasurer. Members attending were Mrs. P. T. Heineman, Mrs. Nellie Spangler, Mrs. Lillian Freeman, Mrs. Lena Hansell, Miss Loris Long, and Miss Florence Fouchek.

Feeding Discussed By Blue Ribbon Club

By Gary Thomas
 4-H Reporter

The monthly meeting of the Blue Ribbon Baby Beef Club was held at the home of Jim, Jon and Barbara Ulrich recently.

The business meeting was conducted by President Charles Stoehr.

We discussed the feeding plan for our calves, and are to bring pictures of them to our next meeting.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ulrich.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Carol and Mary Schmidt on April 5.

WELL, WELL!
 MARIETTA, Pa. — The meeting of the borough's curfew ordinance, had to be postponed. The council couldn't find the ordinance.
