WEeping WATER (Special)
—All the members of the M. A. O. extension were present at the home of Mrs. Bernard Johnson for their March meeting last Tuesday.

Mrs. Bill Finley conducted the business meeting. Roll call was answered by each member telling his favorite frozen food.
Mrs. Bernard Johnson, safety chairman, handed out a Safety-ogram which each member read aloud. They were all pertaining to accidents around the home. She told that 30,000 accidents happen in the home each year and 15,000 of these are caused from falling. Most of these accidents happen to those under 5 years or elderly folks.

Mrs. Willis Lorenson, citizenship chairman, led the group in the pledge to the Flag then told some about the flag.
Mrs. Finley read several letters, one being an invitation from the Plattsmouth Chamber of Commerce for the M. A. O. members to attend Homemakers' Day at Plattsmouth on Tuesday April 17. The program for that day was read. All members are planning to go. Due to this day being the regular meeting date of the club, the date has been set back to Tuesday, April 24. We will meet with Mrs. Earl Cook.

Mrs. Clarence Schmadeke and Mrs. Francis Thoren gave the first part of the lesson on "freezing foods", during which they showed many different containers which can be used in the freezer.
To climax the afternoon, Mrs. Johnson gave each woman a paper plate and passed around many pretty ribbons. Each lady made herself an Easter hat. All were pretty, clever and original! Mrs. Fred Saathoff won first prize and Mrs. Lorenson won second.

Mrs. Johnson served a light lunch, and on each tray was a beautifully decorated Easter egg to carry out the theme of Easter. Mrs. Reginald Colbert and son were guests.
