Dyers Celebrate Their 25th Wedding Anniversary March 21

By Rose McDonald
Tel. 69-2448
GREENWOOD (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dyer observed their 25th wedding anniversary on March 21, at their home near Greenwood. Mrs. Dyer was Miss Edythe Harris of Ansley, before their marriage in Omaha, March 21, 1931.

A dinner was served to relatives, followed by a reception, at which time friends called to offer congratulations.

An informal program was given throughout the evening which consisted of vocal solos by Virginia Cameron, Jacqueline Wiles, DeLoris Leesley, and a clarinet solo by Sharyn Tennant, with Carol Sue Kirk as accompanist.

The serving table was attractively decorated with a bouquet of spring flowers and silver candles. During the first hour Mrs. Ben Howard, sister of Mrs. Dyer, poured, and during the second hour Mrs. Corra Steinmeier, sister of Mrs. Dyer, presided. Miss Bess Bowen and Mrs. Vera Meese were in charge of the dining room. Mrs. James Anderson, sister of Mrs. Dyer, and Mrs. Kenneth Harris, sister-in-law, received the gifts and presented them to the honored couple. Mrs. Ed Stradley had charge of the guest book.
