

Mrs. Snoker Is Improving At Her Home

By Mrs. John Fischer
Journal Correspondent
EAGLE (Special) — Mrs. Elton Snoker is improving quite steadily and is able to sit up part of the time. She had a heart attack a few months ago.

On Friday, her birthday was observed when several friends and relatives called during the day and evening.

Out of town callers were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kemper and family of Bennet, Nebr., Mr. and Mrs. Byron Stall of Paimyra and Mr. and Mrs. Earle Stall of Lincoln.

Mr. Floyd Hursh of Grand Island visited his mother, Mrs. Nora Hursh, who has been ill with a heart illness for several days, at the home of her sister and husband, the Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Trumbles. We are glad to report she is much improved as this goes to print.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Westlake were called to Nebraska City, last Thursday when Mrs. Westlake's brother, Granville Heebner underwent surgery at the St. May's Hospital.

Mrs. Keith Frink left by the way of boat from the United States to Hawaii the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Denison of Cheney visited Mrs. Denison's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Earl and son, Gary, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Ketelhut of Walton are the parents of a baby boy, born at Bryan Memorial hospital Monday, April 16. Mrs. Ketelhut is the former Doris Root, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Root of Eagle. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ketelhut of Walton, Nebr.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frohlich and family tripped to Luverne, Minn., last Saturday and visited former Eagle neighbors and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ayres and son Ken, returning home Sunday evening. They report the Ayres family are fine and enjoying their new home location where they purchased a farm and moved last fall.

Injures Foot

Gary Earl had the misfortune to injure his leg with a hatchet Monday afternoon while trimming brush at his father's house, southwest of Eagle. A few stitches were needed for the wound. It is healing satisfactorily, and he was able to assume his duties at the office in Lincoln on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Doran and family entertained at their home, Sunday, Mrs. Doran's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Sorensen of Filley, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sorensen of Crab Orchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Manners and three daughters of Eagle, and Mrs. Pearl Caddy of Lincoln, spent last Sunday at Mr. Manners' mother, Mrs. Emma Manners' home at Omaha.

Mrs. Ted Wilson of near Weeping Water and Mrs. John Meyers of Greenwood spent last Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kirchhoff of Eagle, Mr. and Mrs. George Kirchhoff of Weeping Water and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brockhoff of Elmwood tripped to Fremont last Sunday and visited Mrs. Brockhoff's nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Dewayne Weaver, and the latter's new baby boy.

Visits At Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Adams visited Mrs. Clarence Bucknell of Elmwood at the Bryan Memorial hospital Tuesday evening. They report the latter is recovering very satisfactorily. She suffered a heart attack, entering the hospital a few weeks ago and will be at the hospital for several more days, before returning to her home.

Mrs. Orris Lanning is at home now, after being employed at Lincoln for several months. She took a leave of absence for a few weeks.

Mrs. Teresa Burdick of Paimyra spent last Wednesday at the home of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wall.

Mr. Rudolph Umland's of Lincoln called at the home of Mr. Umland's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Umland, Sunday afternoon.

Study Sewer Plans

The Village Board met on last Tuesday evening and studied the complete plans for the sewage and disposal with the engineer. The legal notice for bids appears in The Plattsmouth Journal to be May 8th.
