Miss Carol Ann Blessing Weds Allen Ehlers, Jr., in Home Rites

The Sunday afternoon wedding ceremony of Miss Carol Ann Blessing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Blessing, Jr., and Allen Ehlers, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ehlers, Sr., Avoca, took place at the home of her parents, in Elmwood, April 22. The fireplace formed the background for the wedding and the decor of the mantel was a large sprigging bouquet of pink and white snapdragons, and carnations, with lighted candles on each side.

Dr. Bert L. Story solemnized the double ring ceremony. The bride wore a pink silk gown fashioned with a square neckline decorated with bands of embroidery, with a sleeveless, fitted long bodice on a full ballerina length skirt. She wore a small white chapper on her head, and carried a sr. all white Bible, a white orchid, and long white satin ribbon streamers tied with white carnation buds.

The bridesmaid was Charlene Moller, who wore a pink and white checked silk gown with square neckline, sleeveless and long fitted bodice on full length ballerina skirt. She wore a small white hat. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Jim Stock served as best man, like the bridegroom, wore the conventional black.

The ceremony took place in the presence of members of the immediate families of the bride and groom. The mother of the bride, also the mother of the bridegroom, wore a corsage of white carnations.

The serving table was set with a white linen cloth, centered with a three tier wedding cake decorated with pink and white roses and wedding bells. Lighted candles were at both ends of the table.

The bride cut the cake, and Mrs. Clarence Rueter served. Mrs. Arthur Norris, sister of the bride, poured the coffee, and Mrs. Frank Turner served the ice cream. Also assisting with the serving was Mrs. Emil Rose-nov. Mrs. Grace Blessing and Mrs. Arthur Norris had charge of the gift table.

After a honeymoon in the Ozarks the couple will make their home in Weeping Water.
