Minister Resigned Supper Farewell

Pastor Ted Konvaln has resigned from the First Baptist Church Pastorate. He offered his farewell sermon Sunday.

A group of church members held a farewell party at the Plattsmouth Hotel dining room Thursday with a covered dish supper prepared by the ladies of the church.

The evening was spent in visiting and group singing. A cash offering was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Konvaln and two daughters.

Also honored at the going-away party were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ellsott and three children who are leaving soon for England where he will do overseas duty with the Air Corps.

The Konvaln family will spend a few weeks visiting Mrs. Konvaln's parents before leaving for Los Angeles, Calif. where the Pastor is planning to attend the Baptist Seminary.

A resident Pastor has not been appointed at the church, but services will continue at the regular time.

District 2 Pupils Sponsors Go On Tour

The pupils of School District 2, (Hornung School) and the teacher, Mrs. A. C. McClean, took a tour one day last week.

There were 20 in the group that visited a potato chip factory, bakery, train depot and had lunch in Omaha.

In the afternoon they stopped at Offutt Air Force Base where they were taken by bus to tour the field.

Sponsoring the trip were Mrs. Harold Peterson, Jr., Mrs. Bertha Gochenour, Mrs. Frank Lepert and Mrs. Art Mohr.

Best Dressed Baby Misses Her Sleep: Mattress Is Too Rough

By Margaret Dingman
Journal Woman's Editor

Do you have the best dressed baby in town?

Of course you want your little one to be a "chic" of ingenuity, capable of a second glance with admirable compliments of your friends.

Some of the latest baby clothes are truly handsome. High style for babies seems to have taken over in the nursery from clothes to carriage.

But what a pity it is when parents or grandparents are willing to lay out a wad of money for baby's fancy duds and then put the poor innocent darling into a crib and mattress that "Mommie used when she was a baby!"

Most infants are unsophisticated. They don't care what they look like, but they do care how they feel.

It is foolish to spurge on clothes and save on comfort. Make sure baby's crib is comfortable and safe. The side bars stay up despite jarring and jiggling. Be certain the mattress is clean, level, firm and resilient.

Remember, if you skimp on baby's sleeping equipment to make her a clothes horse. She may turn out to be an old nag!

Major Bollmeier And Wife Visit At The Peterson Home

Visitors at the J. C. Peterson home are Major and Mrs. Warren Bollmeier and sons, Warren and John, of Shreveport, La.

Major Bollmeier flew from West Palm Beach, Fla., where he is attending school, to Merced, Calif., where he was called by the death of his father, Emil P. Bollmeier.

Emil P. Bollmeier died of a cerebral hemorrhage at the family home in Merced, April 25. Survivors are his wife, Flossie; two sons, Wayne of St. Paul, Minn., and Warren and five grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Major and his family will leave for Shreveport this week.

Poppy Day Plans Are Completed at Auxiliary Meeting

Poppy Day was the topic of the American Legion Auxiliary meeting held Thursday night at the 40 & 8 Club rooms.

Mrs. Don Waga, president, conducted the business session, with a good attendance of the membership present.

Mrs. W. C. Masten, poppy chairman announced Saturday May 5 as poppy day in Plattsmouth. Volunteer workers of the Auxiliary and junior members will sell poppies.

The local group voted to send contributions to the Red Cross, Cancer fund and Gold Star fund in Lincoln.

Reports were given by Helen Woolcott, child welfare chairman, Helen Vroman on membership, Ruth Krings on the sick committee and Sophia Wolever on the junior auxiliary.

Plans for a tea honoring gold star members will be held May 24 with junior members as hostesses. Initiation ceremonies for senior and junior members will be conducted the same night.

Report of the county convention held recently in Louisville was given by Mrs. Waga and Mrs. Helen Woolcott.

Discussions concerning the zoning of Plattsmouth and nursing scholarships were held.

The president expressed her appreciation to all who assisted in Boys and Girls County.

Study of a Pan American country was the April project of the Auxiliary and a program presented by Child Welfare chairman, Helen Woolcott was immensely enjoyed by the group. Mrs. Woolcott chose the country of Haiti for the lesson and related the customs and religion of Haiti and displayed a doll dressed in the native costume.

Hostesses Mrs. Cora Baumgart, Mrs. Mollie Gobelman, Mrs. Eugene Vroman, Mrs. Clarence Favors, Miss Ida Patton, Mrs. Perry Dingman and Mrs. Bob McClanahan served refreshments.

Jobs Daughters At Church Service

Jobs Daughters, Bethel No. 24, attended church in a group Sunday. Lois Capen, honored queen, took the girls to her church, The Evangelical Reformed Church.

Eighteen officers wore their robes and fifteen choir members also attended.

At the close of the church service the officers formed a Cross and sang "Nearer My God To Thee."

Remember "Mom" With a Gift As Mother's Day Rolls Around

Mother's Day is approaching fast!

Will you be guilty of last minute decision shopping, choosing from picked over stock?

Better keep your eyes glued to the Plattsmouth Journal ads and make a mental note now of what mother would like and what you can afford.

If you start counting all the "taken for granted favors" Mom cast your way, all the times she kissed your wounds, nursed you through sickness, baked your special cookie and as you grew older and married helped you settle in your home and later did your baby sitting free of charge — no gift would be enough. As we all know such is a gift, no-one could afford.

Choose a gift whether it is beautiful or useful. The main thing is not to forget her with a token of love.

Put her in the spotlight for her day!

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith and sons visited Mr. Smith's father at Lincoln, who recently underwent surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Eno Ahrens were Sunday guests at the Dan Anderson home in Union.
