

Mrs. Abel Talks To Clubs

By Mrs. Elmore Saltmarsh
Tel. 3011
LOUISVILLE (Special) — Members of the Plattsmouth and Papillon Junior Federated Clubs, local senior class girls, and their sponsor, Miss Clara Graves were entertained by the Louisville Junior Federated Club at a tea and travelogue in the Methodist Church Wednesday afternoon.

Greetings were extended by the president, Mrs. Elmore Saltmarsh, who introduced the program chairman, Mrs. Elwood Pankonin. Mrs. Pankonin briefly summarized the career of the distinguished speaker, former United States Senator Mrs. Hazel Abel, of Lincoln. Mrs. Abel took her audience with her to some of the far places of the world to which she has been, touching briefly on her experiences in Hawaii and France, Italy and Spain.

Mrs. Robert Larson sang two numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Uhley at the organ. Tea and coffee were served in the church parlors by the hostesses Mrs. Richard Streeter and Mrs. Richard Berner.

At a dinner honoring the boys of the Louisville Athletic teams, 70 men and boys heard Jack Payne, sports announcer of WOW TV emphasize what it takes to make an athlete. Coach Ernest Lee introduced the players and praised them for their work.
