

Moms Feted At Banquet

By Mrs. Dudley Leavitt
Phone 42447
ELMWOOD (Special) — In the dining room of the EUB Church decorated to resemble a circus tent, with balloons suspended from the ceiling, favors of various circus animals; and a menu with clown face, the mothers soon were in a mood for the occasion. About one hundred fifty were served the delicious banquet.

After the dinner a program was enjoyed with Mrs. William Vogt, Jr., as toastmaster. Invocation was by Mrs. J. T. Jochens with the welcome by Mrs. Glen Knosp, responded to by Jean Bornemeier.

Songs were by Beth Kampman, and Dorothy Joan Brak-hage with a solo by Martha Ann Stolz. "The Merry-go-round Broke Down" was sung by Barbara Vogt, Marie Rosenow, Karen Backemeyer and Vicki Schomaker.

The Man on the Flying Trapeze" was sung by Dione Bornemeier, Sherry Stolz, Cheryl Bornemeier and Jacke Kout-sky. Two numbers were sung by Joan Backemeyer, "The Great Pretender" and "So Long, It's Good to Know You."

Women's Society of Christian Service Holds Final Meeting

ELMWOOD (Special) — The last meeting of the conference year was held in the fellowship room of the Methodist Church Friday with Mrs. G. R. Eveland president and Mrs. Emily Gonzales, secretary.
A short report was given by the president of the district con-

Awards were presented to the oldest Mother present who was Mrs. Bertha Osterstag; youngest mother, Mrs. Charles Backemeyer; youngest daughter, Joyce Althouse, 3 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Althouse. Mother who travelled the farthest award went to Mrs. Ruth Norris of Oswego, Ill.

The mother present with most daughters was Mrs. Arthur Drake, who is mother of seven daughters. (She also has five sons).

Honorable mention to living couple married longest was Mr. and Mrs. August Bornemeier.
Two families of four generations of daughters honored were: Mrs. Charles (Lena) Bornemeier, her daughter Mrs. Joe Kunz, her daughter Mrs. Lloyd Althouse, with her three-year-old daughter Joyce.

Another: Mrs. Fred Luet-chens, Wabash, her daughter Mrs. Will Vogt, Sr., and Mrs. Marie Backstrom, and her daughter.

Mrs. Walter Oehlerking, president of the Women's Society of World Service, together with her various committees had the responsibility of the success of this mother-daughter banquet.
Their plans were well laid and executed and the meal cooked. Then the men took over the serving of the food and waiting on tables. Much to their regret quite a few friends had to be turned away as they were unable to accommodate all who came.

Farm Bureau Set to Study School Bill

ELMWOOD (Special) — The Elmwood Unit of Farm Bureau met with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Vogt, with Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Nickel and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bornemeier assisting.

Roll call showed 24 adults and eight children present. There were three visitors.

President Vogt conducted the business meeting. The minutes of the April meeting were read and approved.

Reports from chairmen of county, state and national affairs were called. Mrs. Herbert Oehlerking reported a very good and well attended meeting of the women of Farm Bureau of Cass County with the Mynard Unit.

Howard Vogt reported that it had been drawn to his attention that there was concern in Nebraska of changing the office of State Superintendent of Schools from an appointive office, back to an elective office. He urged the unit members to give it thought this summer, with the possibility of formulating a resolution this fall for our county convention in October.

The meeting was adjourned and Eldon Oehlerking, chairman of the program committee presented Bernie Johnson and Randall Farris from our county office. Bernie showed a film of the Consumer's Co-Operative fertilizer plant at Lawrence, Kansas.

He also showed slides of our office and warehouse near Weeping Water from ground breaking to its present completed form.

Randall Farris showed slides on the different forms of insurance available and explained these forms. Bernie and Randall passed out pencils, literature and samples of fertilizer.
Our hostesses served lunch.

16 Attend Meeting Of Extension Club At Elmwood Recently

ELMWOOD (Special) The Cottage Homemakers Extension Club met with Mrs. Lloyd Vogt recently with 16 present.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Frederic Schutz. Roll call was answered with "beauty hints."
Mrs. Lloyd Vogt gave us a report on Homemakers Day at Plattsmouth where five of our group were able to attend.

Mrs. Mynard Rippe enjoyed the day in Lincoln, as guest of the Women's Division of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce for club presidents which included a tea at the Governor's Mansion.

A letter of thanks was read for a gift package by Mrs. Herbert Oehlerking from the mother of four children in Germany that our club has sent gifts to for quite a few years.

Mrs. Clara Nance gave the lesson on "Hair Beauty." Mrs. Gene Gullford and Mrs. Eldon Oehlerking on "Care of Hands and Nails."

a dinner at the cafe they drove to Nebraska City to visit the J. Sterling Morton home and museum. Mrs. Grace Plybon also accompanied them on the trip. They spent about two hours viewing the exhibits.

Mrs. Warren Norris of Oswego, Ill., and Mrs. Bob Ament of Yankton, S. D., arrived in Plattsmouth Friday morning, where they were met by Mrs. George Delger of Omaha. The three are sisters. They came to Elmwood to be with their mother, Mrs. Lena Bornemeier over the weekend and attend the Mother-Daughter Banquet at the EUB Church on Friday. On Saturday evening, Mrs. Norris and Mrs. Ament attended the Alumni High School banquet at Murdock. They are both graduates at Murdock High School.

Vacation Bible School commences May 21 and continues through May 25. The Rev. T. H. Kampman is Superintendent. Pupils from age four through juniors are provided classes and all are welcome. Miss Jessie Bragg will be here to assist in missionary work.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Cook of Tekamah were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hall Saturday.

Sunday morning LeRoy Cook had breakfast with his mother and she was much surprised as she did not know he was in town. Another mother honored was Mrs. William Bornemeier, who was wearing an orchid at church, a gift sent her via air mail, special delivery from Compton, Calif., the gift of her son Clarence.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Julian and daughter Claire of Plattsmouth, drove to Elmwood Sunday and took Mrs. Julian's mother, Mrs. Earl Horton, also the father, Earl Horton, to Lincoln where they had dinner at the home of Mrs. Lois Francis, another daughter of the Hortons'. There were three generations enjoying the Mother's Day dinner together. Mrs. Francis's son, Norman was also there.

A family dinner at the home of Mrs. Lena Bornemeier on Mother's Day included her two daughters from Illinois, Mrs. Warren Norris, and Mrs. Bob Ament of Oswego. Also there were Mrs. George Delger, Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bornemeier, Jerry Bornemeier and son, and Vernon Bornemeier and son. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kunz and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Althouse and family.
