

Largest Crowd Ever Goes To Church Picnic At Farm

By Mrs. Lewis Baker
Tel. 182

Sunday, June 3 was a perfect day for a picnic.

Members of the Congregational Church, neighbors and friends gathered at the Ray Norris farm home for the annual picnic dinner and reunion of old friends. There were 175 in attendance, the largest group ever to attend. The occasion was also the 25th anniversary of the June picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Norris.

The long tables were loaded with many delicious foods. Everyone enjoyed visiting and looking at the flowers, especially the lovely roses. Several folks were busy taking pictures. A picture was taken of those who were present 25 years ago at the first picnic. Some of this group have never missed a picnic.

Mrs. Arnold Detmer presented some young people who favored the group with some instrumental solos. They were Susan Wood, Marlene Noble, Lorlie Smith, Alice Lauritzen, Mary Alice Wood, Kenny Domingo.

This program was ended with the impressive playing of taps by Wayne Detmer with the echo from a distance by Kenny Lauritzen.

Guests coming from a distance were Rev. and Mrs. Roger Grow, Cathy and Susan of Beresford, South Dakota, who also stayed for evening luncheon with the Norris; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bauman and Lee Bauman, sons of Rev. and Mrs. Bauman; Mrs. Ole Olson from Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. Fernbaugh and daughter of Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. Cogilizer of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Moderow, Fremont; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Moderow, Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gangel of Nebraska City; Mr. and Mrs. William Nolte, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fauquet and family of Plattsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Lummitt, and Mrs. William Copple of Alva.

Nearly 122 Pupils Enrolled At the Vacation Bible School

WEeping Water (Special)—Close to 122 pupils have enrolled in the Vacation Bible School put on by the churches of Weeping Water.

Twenty-five teachers are working under Rev. E. R. Bauman, minister of the Congregational Church, who is supervising the school.

There are four departments, the kindergarten, primary, junior and junior high department. A program will be presented at 7:30 Friday evening for the parents and friends at the Congregational Church. Accomplishments done by the departments will be displayed. The program will include the kindergarten class with the rhythm band under the direction of Mrs. Bernard Johnson and their teacher, Mrs. Ethel Ratnour.

The primary class is learning stories of the Bible and will present a play "The Scroll." They are under the leadership of Mrs. Ed Van Horn.

Mrs. L. N. Houseman with her junior class are learning the books of the Bible and will tell all of them.

The junior high class under the direction of Mrs. E. K. Bauman has been making puppets and will present a puppet show "The Worship."

The money taken in at the Bible School will go one-half to the Nebraska School for the Blind, and one-half to the Nebraska Council of Churches.
